Warſaw, Nov. 13. The new Baſhaw of Cochem has ſent a Perſon hither to the Great Gen. The regiment of Champagne is here; Anhalt, Baviere and Vierzet, at Weſel; two battalions of Piedmont at Cleves; one at Calcar, and the other at Rees; Bouillon, Lockman, and a battalion of militia at Duſſeldorff; Reding at Gueldres; Arbonner at Undingen; the royal artillery at Neus; the dragoons of Chapt at Cleves, and in the neighbourhood; Flamarans at Orſoy; Schomberg at Altkirk, and the light troops at Rees, Zanten and Weſel. If the Regiments were compleat, they would amount to 2 ,000 men.

Rome, Nov. 6. We had, about eight days ago, the greateſt ſtorm that hath been known in the memory of man. Some hailſtones that fell were as big as an ordinary apple. Much damage was done by the lightning. The Houſe of a merchant was ſet on fire, and burnt down, with all his effects.

Paris, Nov. 22. The proceedings in the Parliament of Provence, relative to the Jeſuits, having been far from unanimous, but on the contrary attended with warm debates; and ſome of the members having complained to the King, his Majeſty hath ſent a meſſage, commanding the Parliament to ſend the ſix arrets they have paſſed on this matter, with the grounds thereof, to be laid before him; and in the mean time to ſuſpend the execution of thoſe arrets.

Cologne, Dec. 1. On the 18th of laſt month the flying hoſpital on the Upper Rhine was broke up, as was that here the 27th. Two thirds of the perſons employed in the proviſions, forage, &c. have been diſcharged. Of four thouſand horſes, that tranſported proviſions to the army, two thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty are dead this campaign. The artillery, belonging to the diviſion commanded by the Prince of Conde, is at Coblentz, and will be tranſported from thence by water to Metz; but a brigade of horſes belonging to it, have been ſent to Neus, to draw ſome cannon that were left there.

The 28th paſt Boiſgelin marched hence; and the 30th Conde Cavalry and Dauphin infantry: They were followed this day by Limoſin, Briqueville, and part of the head quarters. Champagne, Tourraine, d'Ally Roial Grenadiers Cambis, and two battalions of militia remain here yet.

Bruſſels, Dec. 2. Marſhal d'Etrees, having been preceded by the Prince of Conde, went through this city on Tueſday laſt, at Nine of the clock in the morning, coming from the army in their way to Paris. About noon part of their baggage arrived here, and moved on the next day for Paris.

Liege, Dec. 3. This day Boiſgelin of four battalions entered the Fauxbourgs of this city. They had demanded quarters for ſix hundred and ſeventy men per battalion, though the whole regiment did not amount to fourteen hundred effective men. They are to be in garriſon at Valenciennes.

Leedes, Nov. 30. On Thurſday the 18th inſtant were married at Ealand, John Maſon, widower, aged 75, to Elizabeth Armitage, widow, aged 79, of Ealand workhouſe, where they had contracted a very intimate acquaintance. They were brought from the workhouſe, to church in a poſt-chaiſe, with ſuitable attendance; from whence they adjourned to the Pariſh-clerk's, where they dined with the Town Officers and other principal inhabitants. After dinner the Bride walked a minuet with one of the attendants, as did alſo the Bridegroom with a young woman of the neighbourhood; and to ſhew his extraordinary agility, he would afterwards divert the company by dancing a hornpipe. They were both very thankful to the preſent Overſeers for permitting them to be married, for (as the Bride expreſſed it) THEY HAD BETTER BE MARRIED THAN DO WORSE.

LONDON, December 4.

From Paris we hear, that the court had demanded the twentieth penny of the States of Britanny; but the oppoſition was ſo great in their aſſembly, that the tax will not take place; however, in lieu of it they have impoſed a duty, called an aid extraordinary, which will produce as much. Theſe advices add, that out of ten ſhips which lately ſailed from Nantz to Breſt, ſeven got in ſafely, and the others were loſt upon ſome rock.

It is rumoured, and with great probability, that when the Militia are diſembodied, which may be ſhortly expected, all commiſſioned officers who embarked therein will have a year's pay allowed them, to enable ſuch (and ſuch there are) to reſume their former functions, which they quitted, from a truly public and popular ſpirit, to ſerve their King and Country. And all thoſe who, from their independency, may think it beneath them to accept or employ it to their own uſe or benefit, will have an opportunity of relieving and aſſiſting the private men (and their families) who ſerved under them. A very laudable and commendable ſcheme.

Yeſterday a cauſe was tried at the Common-Pleas, Weſtminſter, wherein a Merchant of London was plaintiff, and a Baronet defendant; the action was brought againſt the defendant, for winning a ſum of money of the plaintiff at gaming, and a verdict given for the plaintiff, for 700l. damages, beſides coſt of ſuit.

KINGSTON, in Jamaica, October 30.

Monday arrived His Majeſty's Ship Cerberus, Charles Webber, Eſq; Commander, in which came Paſſenger Captain John Darby, late Commander of the Charming Polly, belonging to George Paplay Eſq; who had contracted with the Government for bringing up His Majeſty's Troops belonging to this Station from the Havannah, which Port they left the 25th ult. having on board Captain Fleming, Lieutenants M'Guire and Guilford, and 150 Rank and File. About the Ninth Inſtant (being then off the Iſle of Pines) ſome of the People going privately down to draw Rum, and not taking proper Care of the Candle they carried with them for that Purpoſe, unfortunately ſet Fire thereto; the Flames inſtantly communicated to the Veſſel, which, in a ſhort Time, was entirely deſtroyed. Captains Fleming and Darby, with about ten others, were ſaved in the Brigantine's Boat. Dr. Loch, and Mr. John Garrigues, Enſign in the 46th, ſaved themſelves by ſwimming; and notwithſtanding the extraordinary Humanity, Vigilance, and Activity of Captain Webber, his Officers and Seamen, 84 loſt their Lives by this unfortunate Event; among whom were the two Subaltern Officers, M'Guire and Guilford, and Mr. Joſeph Milan, Enſign in the 57th (a Native of this Iſland) and who was coming Paſſenger to ſee his now afflicted Friends.

Thurſday arrived His Majeſty's Ship Lizard, Captain Banks, who ſailed from Port-Royal only ſeven Days before, to demand the Engliſh Priſoners at St. Jago de Cuba; but we hear the Spaniſh Governor would not deliver them, until a Cartel ſhould be ſettled for an Exchange of Priſoners.

Extract of a Letter from Black River, Nov. 15, 1762.

"This Morning the Snow Appleton, Captain Preſton, bound to the Havannah and New-York, was chaſed into this Port, by three Spaniſh Privateers, viz. two large Schooners, of 8 Carriage Guns each, and a Boat, with 10 Swivels, and 2 Prow-guns, manned with 40 Men; the Snow had 6 Carriage Guns, with ſome Swivels, and had 35 Men on board, including 2 Officers, and 12 Men of the North-America Provincials, that were going Paſſengers to join their Regiment, and they were well provided with Small Arms and Blunderbuſſes, &c. The Boat rowed up cloſe to Captain Preſton, and ordered him to ſtrike, while the two large Privateers were at a Diſtance, bearing down upon him; he fired ſeveral Broadſides at the Boat, and the Paſſengers gauled them very much with the Small Arms, &c. however, the Boat kept cloſe to the Snow, threatning to board her immediately; to prevent which, Captain Preſton tacked about, and gave her a whole Broadſide, raking her from Stem to Stern,. Capt. Fitzpatrick, at the ſame Time, with his Provincials, annoyed them greatly with the Small Arms, by which they could obſerve a Number of the Enemy fall, and ſome tumble overboard. The Boat finding that the Snow's Metal was too heavy for her, and being hulled in many Places, from the Shot ſhe received, ſheered off, and rowed briſkly to join her Conſorts. Captain Preſton aſſures me, that he could with great Facility made her a Prize, had he not been afraid that, by the Delay in ſecuring her, the other two Privateers would have come up and boarded him; therefore he made the beſt of his Way into the Harbour, and the Privateer ſtood away to Leeward. All this happened within this Harbour, and the Privateers came pretty cloſe in before they gave over Chaſe. There were near 20 Shot fired at them from our Fort here, and from the Veſſels that were lying at an Anchor. Captain Preſton had his Boatſwain wounded, but all the reſt are well, and he purpoſes ſailing To-morrow. As theſe Privateers are provided with ſmall Craft, Canoes, &c. to go on Shore, the Inhabitants this Way are all greatly alarmed, for Fear of their landing for Plunder, and to take their Negroes, &c. therefore we hope that a Veſſel will be diſpatched from Port-Royal in Queſt of them.

"The Privateers had juſt taken a Sloop, which is ſuppoſed to be Captain Smith, bound for the Havannah. The Privateers are juſt now obſerved ſtanding off this Harbour."

ST. JAGO DE LA VEGA (in JAMAICA) January 8.

We hear from Old Harbour that a Spaniſh Privateer came into the Harbour on Wedneſday Afternoon, and cut out a Sugar Droger, and carried it off with them. The Coaſts about that Place in particular, and the Iſland in general, has been for ſome Time paſt infeſted with Picarooners, who often dare to come on Shore, and pillage the Places near the Sea. A Gentleman on his Journey from St. Thomas in the Eaſt, a few Days ago, as he rid the Road near the White Horſes, very early in the Morning obſerved ſeveral Spaniards, aſleep near the Road.

CHARLES-TOWN, in South-Carolina, January 22.

The Schooner Mary, of and for this Port, from Providence, Thomas Mackliſh Maſter, was taken on the 24th ult. in 13 Fathom Water, off South Ediſto, by the Privateer Sloop Sancta Maria, Don Martin d'Hamaſſa, Commander, and ſunk the ſame Day, after being ſtripped of her Sails, Rigging, and every Thing that could be of any Uſe to the Spaniards.

The Brigantine taken by the ſame Privateer on the 21ſt ult. off Shubrick's Iſland, was the Portſmouth (a Letter of Marque of ten 4 Pounders with 15 Men) Chriſtopher Burdon Maſter, from Antigua for this Port: Captain Burdon was killed by a Shot from the Privateer, but the Brig made no Defence: She is ſince caſt away on Long-Iſland, near Frederica in Georgia, and beat to pieces; eight Spaniards that were on board the Brig were ſecured by Mr. Sweetenham the Commanding Officer at Frederica.

The Schooner General Wolfe, George Higgins late Maſter, taken by the ſame Privateer, with her whole Cargo of Indigo, Sugars, &c. was likewiſe loſt, at the Matanzas, near St. Auguſtine, and three Spaniards drowned; ſo that of all the Prizes Don Martin made during his laſt Cruize upon this Coaſt, he carried in with him to St. Auguſtine (where he arrived on the 13th Inſt. after being three Days kept off the Bar by contrary Winds) only the Sloop Adventure, John Simonton Maſter.

Another Privateer belonging to St. Auguſtine (a ſmall Schooner of ſix 3 Pounders) has not been more ſucceſsful than Don Martin, having taken ſeveral Prizes, not one of which had arrived: The Schooner Charming Sally, of and from New-York for Havannah, Lancelot Lawrence late Maſter, which miſſed her Way to St. Auguſtine, and got in here the 23d of November laſt, was one; a Schooner, which in like Manner got into North-Carolina, another; and the Sloop Sally, Robert Saunders, from Barbados for Maryland, taken off Cape Hatteras the 4th of November, a third. About three Weeks ago the ſaid Schooner again ſailed from St. Auguſtine (as was ſaid) for Cuba, to look for the Prizes ſhe had taken; but it is imagined ſhe is cruizing upon this Coaſt. We are informed, that the Commander of this Privateer is very unfit for the Buſineſs, and will not attempt any Veſſel that makes a ſhew of fighting

Twenty-three Priſoners taken by the above Privateers, among them Captain Mackliſh, Captain Lancelot Lawrence, and Captain Burdon's Mate, arrived here laſt Tueſday in a Schooner from St. Auguſtine, purchaſed there for that Purpoſe by Mr. Fiſh, who treated them all with great Kindneſs and Humanity. The Day before they came in, they diſcovered a Schooner off St. Helena, which they believe to be the Privateer laſt mentioned above.

Theſe Priſoners ſay, that two or three Veſſels had lately arrived at St. Auguſtine from La Vera Cruz, with about 200 Barrels of Flour, and ſome other Proviſions, without which Supply that Garriſon would have been in a ſtarving Condition, and with it are ſtill in very great Diſtreſs; but they daily expected more Veſſels from La Vera Cruz. That the Pay-ſloop was gone for Porto-Rico. That none of our Men of War had been ſeen off that Place ſince the Bonetta, though any one of them cruizing before that Bar might ſtop every Thing from going in, and prevent any Privateers coming out. That a very ſmall Schooner of about 6 Guns had finiſhed careening the Day before they left St. Auguſtine, which might poſſibly come this Way, though the Spaniards pretended ſhe was going directly to La Vera Cruz. And that three other Privateers were fitting out there, viz. a ſmall Northward-built Brig, mounting 10 Guns, taken out of Simonton's Sloop; Don Martin's Sloop, of 8 Guns; and a ſmall Bermuda-built Sloop of 10; the laſt they imagine may be at Sea in a Fortnight from this Time, and the others in about 3 Weeks.

The Snow John and Sarah, Matthew Ewart Maſter, from Antigua for this Port, ſailed at the ſame Time with Capt. Burdon, and was taken by the Enemy near that Iſland.

The Sloop Betſey, of and for this Port, from Providence, Abiel Camp Maſter, was taken this Morning, off Long-Iſland, about 4 Leagues N. E. from this Bar, by a ſmall low Spaniſh Privateer Schooner, of 4 or 6 Guns, having a white Bottom, Billet Head, and rowing with 12 Oars. Captain Camp and his People got aſhore in their Boat, not without being cloſely purſued, and are juſt come to Town. The Privateer afterwards ſtood to the Southward.

Captain Camp informs us, that ſeveral Prizes have lately been carried into Providence, among others, a very large Dutch Brig, mounting 14 Guns between Decks, and a very large Sloop, both from Cape-Francois for St. Euſtatia, laden with Sugars, &c. taken by the Privateer Ship Hero, Captain Appowen, of Philadelphia; and a large Sugar loaded Ship from the Cape, belonging to one of the Northern Colonies, taken by Capt. Benjamin Clifford.

January 29. Letters from Savannah, received laſt Monday, mention a Privateer having chaſed a Veſſel over the Bar of that Port, in Sight of the Epreuve, on Saturday the 15th Inſtant; and that the Epreuve went out in Queſt of her on the Monday following.

'Tis remarkable, that ſince the preſent War began, our Coaſts have never been ſo much infeſted with Privateers, as ſince the Arrival of the Men of War now upon this Station, obtained upon his Excellency the Governor's Repreſentation; which ſhews the Propriety of the Application, and the particular Occaſion there is for their Service.

Laſt Saturday the Winyah Pilot ſpoke with a Brig from Rhode-Iſland for this Port, off George-Town Bar, which, not being ſince arrived, is ſuppoſed to be taken.

Monday laſt a Privateer Snow, belonging to one of the Northern Colonies, paſſed by this Bar, going to Georgia to get Hands: Capt. Howy, from Philadelphia, on Monday laſt, in 20 Fathom Water, a little to the Northward of this Bar, ſaw a Schooner, whoſe Actions made him judge ſhe was the Privateer that took Capt. Camp's Veſſel the Saturday before.

The Spaniards that were caſt away near Frederica, in the Brig Portſmouth, as mentioned in our laſt, and ſecured by Lieutenant Sweetenham, were afterwards ſent to Savannah, whence, we hear, they have made their Eſcape, by breaking out of Jail.

His Majeſty's Ship the Bonetta, commanded by John Carey, Eſq; ſails To-morrow (Wind and Weather permitting) to ſee all the outward-bound Veſſels to ſome Diſtance from the Coaſt.

Feb. 5. His Majeſty's Snow the Epreuve, commanded by Peter Blake, Eſq; which ſailed on a Cruize from Georgia, the 17th ult. has already been pretty ſucceſsful. On the 19th ſhe appeared off St. Auguſtine Bar, and there took 4 Engliſh Veſſels (ſaid to be taken by their Privateers, off Havannah) lying at Anchor, and unloading, viz. a Brig from Rhode-Iſland, laden with Fiſh and Lumber; a Marblehead-built Schooner, with 300 Barrels of Pork, a great deal of Wine, Anchors, Cables, Soap, Candles, &c. from New-York; a Sloop from New-York, laden with Flour, &c. the 3 ſaid to be bound for the Havannah, and a light Schooner from the Havannah, bound for New-York; all which Captain Blake has ſent into Georgia. The ſame Evening Don Joſeph Garcia's Privateer, hereafter mentioned, narrowly eſcaped him. The 24th ſhe drove aſhore, on St. Auguſtine Bar (where ſhe went to Pieces in 3 Hours) Capt. Camp's Sloop, of and for this Port, from Providence. Since that Time we have no further Accounts of her Cruize; but Captain Blake ſeems to have taken a Station where he may be of great Service.

The Schooner Tybee, of this Port, Thomas Tucker, Maſter and Owner, we are told, was taken on the 17th ult. in a Calm, off St. Helena, as ſhe was coming from Port-Royal (with about 240 Barrels of Rice, and 40 of Pork, &c.) by a ſmall Spaniſh Schooner, belonging to the Havannah, with 60 Men, commanded by Don Joſeph Garcia, and fitted out at St. Auguſtine, with 6 Carriage and 6 Swivel Guns, from whence ſhe had been out only two Days: The great Diſtreſs that Garriſon was in, for Want of Proviſions, induced Garcia to convoy this Prize immediately thither, and ſhe was carried in on the 19th. The Privateer ſailed on a Cruize again the ſame Day, having added to her Force two Three-pounders, which were found on board Captain Tucker's Veſſel. The 23d, took a Brig (under Daniſh Colours) from St. Croix for Georgia, which was not arrived the 31ſt, when the Privateer ſtill was out.

The 29th ult. a Sloop from New-York, richly laden, and ſaid to be bound for the Havannah, Richard Wright, Maſter, arrived at St. Auguſtine; and on the 30th a light Schooner, from the Havannah, bound for New-York or Philadelphia; likewiſe a ſmall Spaniſh Schooner, laden with jerked Beef, alſo arrived there; all ſaid to be ſent in by two ſmall Privateer Schooners, belonging to that Place, and taken near the Morro-Caſtle.

The Spaniſh Priſoners that lately broke out of Jail in Savannah, made their Eſcape in a ſmall Schooner, called the Charming Betty, belonging to Mr. William M'Kenzie, of that Place, which had 300 Buſhels of Corn on board, and carried her ſafe into St. Auguſtine, the 24th ult. about two Hours before the Epreuve appeared off that Bar the ſecond Time.

Capt. Holme, juſt arrived from Liverpool, five Days ago, in Soundings, a little to the Northward of this Bar, ſaw a Privateer Sloop cruizing, but ſhe ſeemed to be afraid to attack him, on Account of his Force: Captain Holme would have attempted to take her, but whenever he ſtood for her ſhe hauled to Windward, and outſailed him that Way.

They had, laſt Week, out on Cruizes, from St. Auguſtine, no leſs than four Privateers, and two more preparing to ſail about this Time: The firſt four are, a Sloop ſent to cruize upon the Coaſt of Philadelphia and New-York; a Schooner, of 6 Two-pounders, 2 Three-pounders, 6 Swivels, and about 60 Men, cruizing upon this Coaſt; and two ſmall Schooners, of 6 Two-pounders, and about 50 Men each, cruizing off the Havannah. The two laſt are, Don Martin's Sloop, and Mr. M'Kenzie's Schooner, as a Tender, who are to cruize off our Bar.

NEW-YORK, February 21.

Captain Seymour, of this Port; a Brig loaded with Stores from Briſtol; and a Schooner from Newfoundland, are taken and carried into Santa Cruz. As is alſo Captain Henſhaw.

The Captains Coffee and Kip, from this Port, are arrived at the Havannah.

Captain Blake, in a Sloop from this Port; a Schooner belonging to Captain White, of this Place, and a Brig from Piſcataqua, were all taken by a Spaniſh Privateer, a few Leagues from the Havannah, and carried into Santo Deago.

Friday Night laſt came to Town from Rhode-Iſland, the Cooper belonging to the Privateer Sloop Bonetta, Captain Spelling, of this Port, who informs us, That about 10 Days before Chriſtmas they fell in with a French Privateer, commanded by one L'Eſtach, of 24 Guns, and 120 Men, whom they engaged for ſeveral Glaſſes, in which Time Captain Spelling and his firſt Lieutenant were killed, and the Veſſel greatly damaged; and by the Bonetta's Topping Left being ſhot away, the Boom fell into the Sea, when the Frenchmen ſeized the Opportunity, boarded and took her, with the Loſs of two more of Capt. Spelling's Men; the Bonetta mounted 12 Guns, and had only 60 Men, who all behaved as became Engliſhmen, having fired their Cannon until their Deck gave Way.

Feb. 24. Yeſterday arrived here the Ship Orangefield, Captain Morris, in 13 Weeks from Belfaſt; when he ſailed, the Captains Tingley, Alexander, and Devereux, were at Cork.

PERTH-AMBOY, February 26, 1763.

Yeſterday, about One o'Clock, his Excellency WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Eſq; Captain General, and Governor in Chief of the Province of New-Jerſey, arrived in this City from Philadelphia.-----Notwithſtanding the great Inclemency of the Weather, his Excellency was met about ſeven Miles off by the Middleſex Troop of Horſe, and ſeveral Gentlemen in Sleighs, who attended him back to this Place. On his Arrival, His Majeſty's Council for this Province, having been ſummoned for that Purpoſe, received him; and after his Commiſſion was read in Council, and the uſual Oaths adminiſtred, the Commiſſion was publiſhed in the Court-Houſe, amidſt a very great Concourſe of People; and the whole was conducted with as much Decency, and good Decorum, as this Seaſon could poſſibly admit of.

PHILADELPHIA, March 3.

Captain Aſhmead, from Jamaica, informs us, that Captain James Lake, in a Privateer Sloop, of 16 Carriage Guns, belonging to that Iſland, being on a Cruize, fell in with five Spaniſh Privateers, going to St. Jago de Cuba, from Tiberoon Bay, with 700 Soldiers, it was ſaid, on board: That Captain Lake engaged theſe Privateers for about two Hours, and behaved moſt gallantly, but was at laſt overpowered and taken, two of the Privateers, after throwing in their Stink Pots, having boarded him. The particular Loſs on board Captain Lake was not known, but muſt have been conſiderable, conſidering the very unequal Force he fought with. The Enemy uſed the Captain very ill after he had ſtruck, having with their Cutlaſſes cut off ſome of his Fingers, and almoſt one of his Arms. Captain Lake had a Conſort, but unluckily parted with her the Night before he met the Privateers.

Captain Waſhington, in a Privateer belonging to Kingſton, carried a Dutch Sloop in there the Day before Captain Aſhmead ſailed.

The Ship Cheſter, Captain Horton, of this Port, bound to South Carolina from Jamaica, was caſt away in the Gulph.

The Brigantine Rebecca, Captain Warner, of this Place, homeward bound from Jamaica, was loſt on Heneaga.

The Brig Louiſbourg, Captain Dougherty, in ſixteen Weeks Paſſage from Londonderry, is arrived at Marcus-Hook.

Arrived at Jamaica from this Port. The Captains Donnell, Dee, M'Alpine, Farrell, Story, Fortune, Spain and Read.

At South Carolina. Captains Peele, Howey and Joy.

As there are at preſent many Complaints of RHEUMATIC DISORDERS, and the following Receipt falling into our Hands, we thought a Publication of it might be of Service to the Public in general, and to ſome of our Readers in particular.

To the Authors of the ROYAL CHRONICLE.

GENTLEMEN,

THE following Receipt for the Rheumatiſm was given to me, and ſeveral of my Acquaintance, by a worthy Friend, who aſſured us that the Medicine therein preſcribed had effectually cured him of that Diſeaſe, after he had fruitleſly tried ſeveral others; and a perfect Confidence in his Veracity induced them and me to mention this Medicine to ſuch Perſons as we knew to be afflicted in the ſame Manner, from whom we have ſince received ſuch farther Information of its farther Efficacy as intirely correſponds with what our Friend told us; we are therefore of Opinion that the ſaid Receipt ought to be made public, without waiting for more ample Proof in a Caſe that ſo nearly concerns the Welfare of many Thouſands in theſe Kingdoms, and I have accordingly ſent it to you for that Purpoſe; being fully perſuaded that the Generality of People will be well ſatisfied with knowing that this Medicine hath in various Inſtances been found an effectual Cure for the Rheumatiſm, for this is all that any of the Parties concerned herein preſume to know of the Matter; but upon looking into Doctor Quincy's Diſpenſatory we find, that the very Medicine here preſcribed for the Rheumatiſm is there preſcribed for the Gout, which makes it at leaſt probable that both of thoſe Diſeaſes may be cured or relieved by one and the ſame Means.

Weſtminſter, J. MASSIE.

March 13. 1762.

A RECEIPT to cure the RHEUMATISM.

TAKE one Ounce of § Balſamum Polychreſtum, and mix it very well with a Wine Glaſs or Tea Cup full of the beſt Brandy or Rum: When ſo mixed, put that Mixture into a Quart Bottle, partly filled with ſtrong Mountain Wine, then fill the Bottle with the ſame Sort of Wine, and let the Whole ſtand Twenty-four Hours, at the End of which it will be fit for Uſe; and the Patient is to drink a Wine Glaſs full, or near a Gill, each Night when going to Bed.

Note, That one Quart of this Medicine hath in ſome Inſtances been ſufficient to effect a Cure: The Patient ſhould be warmly clothed to avoid catching Cold: A Gentleman, who hath taken the Trouble to mix this Medicine for ſome Perſons known by him, obſerves that Brandy is more proper than Rum; becauſe the former being diſtilled from Wine, it mixes better with the Mountain Wine, and the Flavour of Rum being diſagreeable to ſome Palates.

§ This Balſam is compoſed of Gum Guaiacum, Peruvian Balſam, and Spirit of Wine. Diſpenſatory, Part iii. Sect. 9.

ABOUT 30 or 40 Years ſince, two Brothers, of the Name of CLARK, and afterwards a third Brother, of the Name of GEORGE CLARK, came over to this Province from the City of Glouceſter, or from Newent, in the County of Glouceſter, and all died in this City. George Clark, who ſurvived his two Brothers, died without Iſſue, about 20 Years ſince, leaving, it is ſaid, conſiderable Effects behind him, on which ſome Perſon in this Province ſent over to England, about 18 Years ſince, an Advertiſement, which was publiſhed in the News-papers there, to apprize his Relations of their Title to the ſame. And as no Claimant appeared, another Advertiſement, to the ſame Effect, was again publiſhed in England, about four Years ſince, informing the Relations (if any) where to apply. But this Advertiſement not coming to the Knowledge of the Relations till ſome Time after it was put in the Papers, and they not being able to find out what Paper it was in, they cannot tell where to apply for the neceſſary Information. They would therefore be obliged to any Perſon who knew George Clark, and his Circumſtances, to acquaint them of the Particulars, by a Letter, directed to WILLIAM CLARK, to be left at the New-Printing-Office.

The humble ADDRESS of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of NEW BRUNSWICK.

May it pleaſe your EXCELLENCY,

Tho' it be not without ſome ſenſible Emotions we part with our late worthy Governor, your immediate Predeceſſor, who, by his Affability, Candour and diſintereſted Conduct in the Courſe of his Adminiſtration (tho' ſhort) acquired to himſelf univerſal Eſteem: Yet from His Majeſty's known Goodneſs, and tender Regard for His Subjects, even in this diſtant Part of His Dominions, we reſt ſatisfied, and are perſuaded that the Reins of Government are happily placed in the Hands of your Excellency, being well acquainted with the Conſtitution of this Province, in which, may the ſame continue long a diffuſive Bleſſing, and in which, we are well aſſured, this Corporation cannot fail ſharing in the happy Effects.

PRINCE-TOWN, March 3, 1763.

Yeſterday His Excellency WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Eſq; Governor of the Jerſeys, came to this Town, in his Way from Amboy; and having been pleaſed to viſit the College, he was received by the Preſident and Tutors with great Reſpect; and being conducted into the Hall, where the Students, and many of the Inhabitants, were aſſembled, the following Addreſs was preſented.

To His EXCELLENCY
WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Eſq;

Governor and Commander in Chief in and over His MAJESTY's Province of NEW-JERSEY, and Territories thereon depending, in America, Chancellor and Vice Admiral of the ſame,

The humble ADDRESS of the Preſident and Tutors of the COLLEGE of New-Jerſey.

May it pleaſe Your EXCELLENCY,

WE, the Preſident and Tutors of the College of New-Jerſey, beg Leave to congratulate your Excellency on your ſafe Arrival on this Continent, and Acceſſion to the Government of this Province; and to expreſs the peculiar ſuperadded Pleaſure with which we welcome your Excellency to NASSAU-HALL, which commits itſelf to your Protection, and hopes for your Patronage, both as our Governor, and Preſident of the honourable Board of Truſtees.

This College, founded on the nobleſt Motives, by the late excellent Governor BELCHER, has been countenanced by his Succeſſors (of whoſe Politeneſs and Condeſcenſion we retain a grateful Remembrance) and, by the generous Aids which the Friends of Religion and Learning have afforded, it has been raiſed to its preſent flouriſhing State. And if we preſume, what we rationally may, from your Excellency's general Character,---from your being entruſted with ſo honourable and important a Commiſſion, by the Father of his Country, the Royal Patron of Religion, Virtue, Learning, and whatever is good,------and from an Education under the Influence and Direction of the very eminent Doctor FRANKLIN, your Excellency's honoured Father; we cannot but aſſure ourſelves, that you will view this Inſtitution, erected for the beſt Purpoſes, with a favourable Eye.

As to its real Merit, your Excellency's acknowledged Penetration, and extenſive Acquaintance with polite Literature, will enable you to judge, when you ſhall have enquired into our Conſtitution,----Methods of Inſtruction, and Diſcipline,----the Care taken as to the Principles and Morals of the Students, and their Proficiency in the ſeveral Branches of Learning.

We are ſenſible how vain it would be to expect, and how unreaſonable to requeſt, your Excellency's Patronage, any farther or longer than we exert ourſelves, agreeable to the original Deſign and direct Tendency of the Inſtitution, to promote the general Good of Mankind, by forming our Pupils for the Service of their Country. And as the faithful Diſcharge of our Duty to them, is at once conformable to the Divine Command, and will be moſt acceptable to your Excellency, we ſhall the more diligently and chearfully apply ourſelves, to inſtruct them in the various Parts of uſeful and ſolid Learning, and inſtil into their Minds Principles of Loyalty to the beſt of Kings,----a firm Attachment to the moſt excellent Britiſh Conſtitution,----and a ſacred Regard to the Cauſe of Religion and Liberty.

That your Excellency may ever enjoy all thoſe refined Pleaſures, that natively ſpring from a Courſe of virtuous and beneficent Actions,----from an exemplary Conduct in private Life,----and a wiſe, mild, and juſt Adminiſtration of public Affairs; and long continue in the Seat of this Government, happy in His Majeſty's Favour, and the grateful Approbation of a free People, is, and ſhall be our unfeigned and ardent Deſire.

In Behalf of the Faculty, preſented by,
SIR, Your Excellency's moſt obedient,
And moſt humble Servant,
SAMUEL FINLEY, Preſident.

To which his EXCELLENCY was pleaſed to make the following ANSWER.

GENTLEMEN,

I THANK you for theſe very obliging Expreſſions of your Regard for me. Your Stations and Employments are among the moſt honourable, as the careful Inſtruction of Youth in the Principles of Religion, Loyalty, and ſound Learning, is of the greateſt Utility to Society. I therefore wiſh you all imaginable Succeſs, and ſhall at all Times readily and chearfully concur with your laudable Endeavours, and afford you every Encouragement and Aſſiſtance that may be in my Power."

After which, one of the ſenior Claſs pronounced a ſhort congratulatory Oration, of which His Excellency was pleaſed to expreſs his Approbation and Acceptance.

BURLINGTON, March 5. 1763.

On Thurſday Evening laſt our new Governor arrived here, accompanied by a Number of Gentlemen from Trenton, Borden-Town, and the Corporation of this City, who, with the other principal Inhabitants, met the Governor ſeveral Miles out of Town. He was received at his Arrival with the greateſt Demonſtrations of Joy, and the Evening was concluded with Bonfires, Ringing of Bells, Firing of Guns, &c. The next Day his Excellency, attended by the Corporation, and many other Perſons of Eminence, proceeded to the Court-houſe in this City, where his Commiſſion of Governor of New-Jerſey was opened and declared; he afterwards dined with the Corporation, who preſented him with the following Addreſs.

To His EXCELLENCY
WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Eſq;

Captain-General, Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over His MAJESTY's Province of NOVA CÆSAREA, or NEW-JERSEY, and Territories thereon depending, in America, Chancellor and Vice Admiral in the ſame, &c.

The humble ADDRESS of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of BURLINGTON, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your EXCELLENCY,

TO accept our hearty Congratulations on your Appointment to this Government, and on your ſafe Arrival here; which we tender with the greater Chearfulneſs, becauſe, from your Excellency's liberal Education, perſonal Character, and Abilities, we are emboldened to hope for all the Bleſſings which a good and a wiſe Governor can confer upon a dutiful and loyal People.

May your Excellency long preſide over us, in the full Fruition of all that Gratitude can beſtow, and Merit has a Right to enjoy.

If the agreeable Situation, Healthineſs, and Conveniences of this City, accompanied with a ſincere Diſpoſition in the Inhabitants to make your Adminiſtration eaſy and happy, ſhould be ſufficient Incitements to induce your Excellency to reſide among us, we ſhall eſteem ourſelves particularly favoured.

By Order of the City,
RICHARD SMITH, Recorder.

To which the GOVERNOR was pleaſed to make the following ANSWER.

GENTLEMEN,

I RETURN the good Citizens of BURLINGTON my Thanks for this affectionate Addreſs. Their hearty Congratulations, and kind Invitation to reſide among them, are very obliging; and I hope the favourable Expectations they have entertained of my Adminiſtration will not be diſappointed."

This Day the Governor ſet out for Philadelphia, attended by the principal Gentlemen of this City.

AT the repeated Solicitations of ſeveral Perſons, the Ohio Company have agreed to lay off a Number of Lots for a Town at Fort Cumberland, near the Mouth of Willis's Creek, on Potowmack River, in the Province of Maryland; and that each Purchaſer may have an Opportunity of attending, and chooſing the Lots he may judge moſt convenient, they will be ſold to the higheſt Bidders on Friday the 15th of April next.

Any one who will conſult the Maps muſt ſee that Fort Cumberland, from its natural Situation and Contiguity to that very extenſive and fertile Country on the Ohio and its Waters, muſt be the Key to all that valuable Settlement; it being the higheſt and moſt convenient Landing-place for the Inhabitants on the other Side the Allegheny Mountains, on all the River Potowmack, which affords a Water Carriage that, with a very inconſiderable Expence, might be rendered Safe, certain and eaſy, at all Seaſons of the Year, from the great Falls to the Spot now propoſed for a Town. It is about 75 Miles Land Carriage to the Monongahela, which is navigable to the Ohio for Flat-bottomed Boats or Battoes; and not more than 65 Miles to the Yauyaugaine, where the Road, as it is at preſent cleared to Pittſburgh, croſſes; to which Place the Indians frequently, before the War, brought up their Battoes loaded with Skins: And all who are acquainted with the Country agree that a very good Waggon Road may be made to that very Spot, or even a few Miles lower down the River, which would reduce the Diſtance from thence to Fort Cumberland at leaſt 15 Miles. The Land Carriage from Pimmitt's Warehouſe, at the Little Falls, which is the higheſt Tide Water of Potowmack, to the Great Falls, does not exceed 12 Miles; and the Manufactures of Great-Britain may be tranſported by the Potowmack to the Ohio, and its Produce or Furs remitted through the ſame Channel, only with 90 Miles Lang Carriage at the Moſt.

Fort Cumberland is about 115 Miles from Pittſburgh, 30 from Fort Bedford, 60 from Winchester, Land Carriage, good Waggon Roads, and 100 Miles Water Carriage from the Mouth of Conecocheague Creek in Maryland.

The Day the Lots are ſold the Ohio Company will lett to the higheſt Bidder, for a Term of Years, two very good Storehouſes, oppoſite to Fort Cumberland, in Virginia, one 45 by 25, with a Counting-room and Lodging-room at one End, the other 44 by 20, with proper Conveniences for a Family to live in, two Stories high each, beſides Garrets, with good dry Cellars, fit for ſtoring Skins, the whole Size of the Houſes; and a Kitchen, Stable for 12 Horſes, Meat-houſe and Dairy; there are two good Battoes, which will be given to the Perſon who Rents the Houſes. The whole entirely new, and will be completely finiſhed, and fit to enter upon immediately; and the Perſon who takes the Store-houſes, may alſo have a Leaſe, for a Term of Years, of as much Land adjacent to them as he chooſes. Any one deſirous to treat privately for the Store-houſes, &c. before the Day of Sale, or the Town Lots, may know the Terms by applying to the Subſcriber, who will attend at Fort Cumberland, on the 15th Day of April before-mentioned, to deliver the Purchaſers Deeds for their Lots. There is great Plenty of good Timber and Limeſtone on the Lands, on each Side of the River; and the Company are building a Saw and Griſt-mill, within a Mile of the Spot propoſed for the Town.

An ACT to prevent and remove certain NUSANCES in and near the City of PHILADELPHIA.

WHEREAS great Complaint is made, by divers Inhabitants of the City and Suburbs of Philadelphia, that Diſtillers, Soap-Boilers, and others, frequently diſcharge large Quantities of foul and ſtinking Liquors, the Returns from their Stills and Boiling-veſſels, on the adjacent Grounds, or into the Kennels of the public Streets, Lanes or Alleys, to the great Annoyance of the Inhabitants; or by diſcharging the ſame into Wells, Vaults or Sinks, dug for that Purpoſe, have injured, if not totally ruined their Neighbours Waters; and that there are a Variety of other Nuſances, or Annoyances, in and near the ſaid City, to the great Inconvenience and Damage of the Inhabitants. To prevent which Inconveniences and Damages, Be it Enacted by the Honourable JAMES HAMILTON, Eſq; Lieutenant-Governor, under the Honourable THOMAS PENN, and RICHARD PENN, Eſquires, true and abſolute Proprietaries of the Province of Pennſylvania, and Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent and Suſſex, upon Delaware, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Repreſentatives of the Freemen of the ſaid Province, in General Aſſembly met, and by the Authority of the ſame, That if any Diſtiller, Soap-Boiler, or Tallow-Chandler, within the ſaid City, Diſtrict of Southwark, or built Parts of the Northern Liberties, ſhall, after the Publication hereof, by themſelves, their Agents, Journeymen, or Servants, preſume to diſcharge out of, or from any Still-Houſe, or Work Shop, foul and nauſeous Liquor, of any Kind whatſoever, into or upon any adjacent Ground, or into any Well, Vault or Sink, within the ſaid City, Diſtrict or Townſhip, every Perſon ſo offending, and being thereof legally convicted, in the Court of Quarter Seſſions, held for the Peace of the ſaid City or County reſpectively, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

And the more effectually to preſerve the Waters in the ſaid City, Diſtrict of Southwark, and Northern Liberties, wholeſome and fit for Uſe, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Commiſſioners by Law appointed for paving the Streets of the ſaid City, and Superviſors of the Diſtrict of Southwark, and Townſhip of the Northern Liberties reſpectively, with the Aſſent of the Mayor or Recorder, and any two Aldermen of the ſaid City, and any two Magiſtrates of the County of Philadelphia aforeſaid, ſhall limit, direct and appoint the Depth of all Vaults, Wells or Sinks, hereafter to be dug in the built Parts of the ſaid City, Diſtrict or Townſhip, for Privies, or Neceſſary Houſes; which Regulation being ſo made, as aforeſaid, ſhall be advertiſed in the Pennſylvania Gazette, and then depoſited in the Hands of the Clerks of the Court of Quarter Seſſions for the City and County of Philadelphia, ſubject to the Inſpection of any Inhabitant of the City, Diſtrict and Townſhip aforeſaid, applying for that Purpoſe. And be it further Enacted, by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Diſtiller, Soap-Boiler, or Tallow-Chandler, within the ſaid City, Diſtrict, or Townſhip, ſhall, as aforeſaid, diſcharge any foul or nauſeous Liquor from any Still-Houſe, or Work Shop, ſo that ſuch Liquor ſhall paſs into or along any of the Streets, Lanes or Alleys of the ſaid City, Diſtrict, or Townſhip; or if any Soap-Boiler, or Tallow-Chandler, ſhall keep, collect, or uſe, or cauſe to be kept, collected, or uſed, in any of the built Parts of the City, Diſtrict, or Townſhip aforeſaid, any ſtale, putrid, or ſtinking Fat, Greaſe, or other Matter; or if any Butcher ſhall keep, at or near his Slaughter-Houſe, any Garbage, or Filth whatſoever, ſo as to annoy or offend any Neighbour, or Perſon whomſoever, he, ſhe, or they, ſo offending, and being thereof convicted, before any Juſtice of the Peace of the ſaid City, or County reſpectively, ſhall forfeit and pay, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of Thirty-five Shillings.

And be it further Enacted, by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, after the Publication hereof, preſume to cart, carry, draw out, or lay any dead Horſe, or other Carcaſe of Cattle, Sheep, Hog, or Dog, or any Excrement, or Filth, from Vaults, Privies, or Neceſſary Houſes, and ſhall leave ſuch Carcaſe, Carrion, or Filth, without burying the ſame a full and ſufficient Depth in the Ground, on any Part of the Commons of the ſaid City, or on or near any of the Streets, Lanes, Alleys, or Highways, within the ſaid City or Diſtrict, or Townſhip adjoining the ſame, every Perſon or Perſons ſo offending, and being convicted thereof, before any Juſtice of the Peace of the City or County of Philadelphia reſpectively, ſhall forfeit and pay, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of Thirty Shillings.

And whereas, by late extraordinary Encroachments of Cellar Doors, Steps, and Porches, made in the Streets of the ſaid City, of Jut-Windows, Bulks, and other Incumbrances, the ſaid Streets are greatly obſtructed; and by a Number of Spouts, or Gutters, ſet at the Eves of Penthouſes, and other Places in the ſaid Streets, large Collections of Water are diſcharged, in rainy Seaſons, on Perſons paſſing near the ſame; Be it therefore Enacted, by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall hereafter make and ſet up, or ſhall cauſe to be made and ſet up, in any Street of Fifty Feet wide, or upwards, within the ſaid City, any Porch, Cellar Door, or Step, which ſhall extend beyond the Diſtance of Four Feet Three Inches into ſuch Street, or a proportionate Diſtance into any narrower Street, where the ſame ſhall be made or ſet up; and if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall hereafter make and ſet up, or cauſe to be made and ſet up, any Bulk, Jut-Window, or Incumbrance whatſoever, whereby the Paſſage of any Street ſhall be obſtructed; or ſhall ſo place, or cauſe to be ſo placed, any Spout, or Gutter, whereby the Paſſage of any Street ſhall be incommoded, every Perſon ſo offending, and being thereof legally convicted, before any Juſtice of the Peace of the ſaid City, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Thirty Shillings; and ſhall forthwith remove, or cauſe the ſaid Nuſance to be removed.

LONDON, December 2.

When the Gentlemen deputed by the Houſe of Commons delivered their Meſſage of Congratulation to the Queen, on her ſafe Delivery, and the Birth of a Prince, her Majeſty was pleaſed to give them the following Anſwer.

"The new Inſtance of your Attention to me, and Duty to the King, calls for my warmeſt Acknowledgments; the Proſperity of this Nation will ever be the firſt Object of my Wiſhes."

The following is his Majeſty's Anſwer to the Addreſs of Thanks of the honourable Houſe of Commons, preſented to him on Saturday laſt.

GENTLEMEN,

"I return you My hearty Thanks for this very dutiful and affectionate Addreſs; and I receive your Congratulations on the Birth of the Prince My Son, as a freſh Proof of your Attachment to My Perſon, and of your Regard for the Queen. The Aſſurance of your ready Support in ſuch Expences as may be ſtill neceſſary, afford Me the higheſt Satisfaction; and the Ratification of the Preliminary Articles, gives Me the pleaſing Hope of ſoon eaſing My faithful Subjects, by a ſafe, honourable and permanent Peace, of the heavy, but unavoidable Burdens they have ſo chearfully borne during the War."

Dec. 4. It is ſaid that the Sum of Money uſually expended on the Proclamation of Peace, in Royal Fire-works (which are, at beſt, but a momentary Amuſement, and can anſwer no Sort of End) will be diſtributed among the Widows and Children of thoſe brave Fellows, who nobly fell in their Country's Service.

We hear that a Plan is talked of for retrenching the Expences of this Kingdom; by which, among other Things, all uſeleſs Officers in our public Offices will be caſhiered; Numbers of others reduced in their Fees, Perquiſities and Salaries; and many Penſioners either reduced or ſtruck off the Liſt.

Dec. 7. It is ſaid, that on Wedneſday laſt, no leſs than ſeven Perſons either reſigned, or were diſmiſſed from their Employments in a certain public Office. Two of them are well known, and their Places already filled up.

We hear that next Week a Liſt will be printed, of the Names of the Perſons who ſhall approve or diſapprove of certain Meaſures, of the higheſt Conſequence to the future Happineſs and Security of this Nation.

We hear that his Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to direct his Admiralty to hire Tenders for carrying ſuch Seamen as are daily paying off from his Men of War, to their diſtant and reſpective Places of Abode; his Majeſty's great Goodneſs and Tenderneſs having conſidered the Expences and Diſtreſſes of the poor Seamen, if otherwiſe they were obliged, as formerly, to travel at their own Expence by Land.

We hear that the Regiments of Foot on the Iriſh Eſtabliſhment are to be reduced from 70 Men to 28 Men each Company.

Dec. 9. It is reported that many of the diſcharged Men from our Dock-yards have already liſtened to ſome Agents here, to engage in foreign Employ.

An auguſt Aſſembly has ordered Thanks to be given to the Marquis of Granby, for his many eminent Services during the War.

Upwards of 20,000 Seamen are already diſcharged, and the Men of War laid up.

Dec. 11. A Houſe is taken for the Morocco Ambaſſador to this Court for 12 Months certain, which occaſions much Speculation.

CHARLES-TOWN (in SOUTH-CAROLINA) Feb. 9.

On Monday laſt arrived here Captain Thomas Tucker, in the Schooner Tybee, from St. Auguſtine. He ſailed from Port-Royal with Rice, &c. for this Port, and was taken 17th paſt, by the ſame Privateer that took the Sloop Betſey, Captain Camp, near this Bar. Mr. Fiſh, whoſe Generoſity and Humanity to every Britiſh Subject that happens to be in Diſtreſs, cannot be enough extolled, kindly aſſiſted Captain Tucker in purchaſing his Veſſel, &c. from the Captors, after Condemnation.

This Day arrived here Captain Corbet, in a Flag of Truce Schooner from St. Auguſtine, whither he had been ſent with ſome Spaniſh Priſoners by Governor Dobbs, from North-Carolina. The French Captain had before taken a Guernſey Ship, a Weſt-India Packet Boat (with all the Mails on board, except that for Barbados, which had been landed) a Schooner from Antigua for Eſſequebo; a Brig from Briſtol for Martinico, James Thomſon Maſter; and the Snow Cape-Breton, Captain Wilſon, from New-York for the Weſt-Indies, all which were ſent away for Port-Louis, in Hiſpaniola, except Captain Wilſon, who was put on board the Succeſs, and from whom we have this Information.

Extract of a Letter from London, Dec. 11, 1762.

"------Thoſe who of late exclaimed moſt againſt the Peace, begin now to alter their Sentiments: Thurſday and Yeſterday the Preliminaries were before the Houſe of Commons, who, by a Majority of above 250, have agreed to addreſs his Majeſty this Day, to thank him for obtaining Terms ſo honourable. The Duke of N--------'s Party, notwithſtanding all their Bluſter without Doors, made but a poor Oppoſition in the Houſe, there were only 65 of them, and they, when they attempted to ſpeak, were ſcarce liſtened to. Mr. PITT was in the Houſe, but ſo bad with the Gout, that he was obliged to be ſupported by two of his Servants: On Thurſday he ſpoke upwards of two Hours, and perhaps more good Senſe was never ſpoken in the ſame Length of Time. Some of the Preliminary Articles he expreſſed his Diſlike to, and others he highly approved of. Thoſe in the Oppoſition were greatly diſappointed, as they expected he would attack all the Meaſures of the Miniſtry.-----Though he was very moderate, he apppeared rather in the Oppoſition than otherwiſe."

On Monday laſt arrived here from Belfaſt, about 12 Families of Iriſh Proteſtants, conſiſting of about 70 Perſons, in Conſequence of the Encouragement given to Settlers by this Province. Feb. 19. The Port of George-Town, Winyah, has been in a Manner blocked up for this Fortnight paſt, by a Brigantine, and a Schooner, who are ſeen every Day ſtanding off and on, and at Nights anchor near the Mouth of Santee River. None of the Ceaſſers there dare come out, tho' they have made ſeveral Attempts. One or two Veſſels from the Northward have been chaced in. And of three Marblehead-men, that were determined to go out, one was obliged to return.

The laſt Veſſels from the Havannah, left it the 7th Inſtant, and bring nothing new, but that ſeven Spaniſh Privateers were cruizing between the Matanzas and that Port.

BOSTON, February 14.

Monday laſt being the Day appointed by his Excellency the Governor for publiſhing His Majeſty's Royal Proclamation, declaring the Ceſſation of Arms, as well by Sea as Land; accordingly at Noon his Honour the Lieutenant Governor, the Members of the Honourable His Majeſty's Council, and Houſe of Repreſentatives, with a Number of the principal Gentlemen of the Town, attended his Excellency at the Council Chamber, and at One o'Clock the Proclamation was publiſhed from the Balcony of the Court-Houſe; which was followed by the joyful Acclamations of the People: The Guns at Caſtle-William, and the Battery in this Town diſcharged a Royal Salute on the Occaſion. On Tueſday Evening laſt his Excellency the Governor, with the Members of both Houſes of Aſſembly, and the principal Gentlemen of the Town, met at Concert-Hall, where His Majeſty's and other loyal Healths were drank; and a general Joy was diffuſed through all Ranks, on the Proſpect of an happy Iſſue of a War, in which this Country has had ſo great a Share, and on Terms ſo advantageous to all His Majeſty's North-American Dominions.

On Monday laſt the Honourable Houſe of Repreſentatives ordered their Thanks to be given to Lieut. Col. JOB WINSLOW, who commanded the Maſſachuſetts Provincials at the Re-taking of Newfoundland, which was accordingly done by the Speaker, who deſired him, at the ſame Time, to acquaint the other Officers that were with him, of the high Senſe the Houſe has of their Conduct and Bravery in that Expedition.

To which Lieutenant Colonel Winſlow replied.

Mr. SPEAKER,

"THE Honour done me by this Honourable Houſe, demands "my utmoſt Gratitude; and neceſſarily engages my utmoſt En"deavours, in all public Inſtances, to make my future Services "acceptable to the beſt of Kings, and my Country."

The Captains Bruce and Patridge, who ſailed from England for this Place with Captain Farr, as mentioned in our laſt, put in at the Vineyard laſt Saturday Se'nnight.

Feb. 17. We hear from Martha's Vineyard, that on the 28th ult. as one Moſes Lence, a young Man of about 24 Years, leaning on his Gun with which he had juſt returned from Canning, by ſome Accident the Gun went off, and the whole Charge of Powder and Shot tore his Head to Pieces, his Brains and Pieces of his Skull were drove into the Clapboards of the Houſe near which he was ſtanding, and was killed inſtantly.---It is remarkable that he had been out all the Forenoon, and was not able to fire off the Gun, by reaſon of ſome Defect in the Lock.

By Captain ALISON, in a short Passage from Antigua, we have the following Advices.

STOCKHOLM, Dec. .

THE orders for the reduction of the forces in this kingdom are just published throughout the provinces, by a circular letter from his Swedish Majesty.

Berlin, Dec. 14. By the last letters from Saxony, Major General Kleist was not yet returned from his expedition into the empire. The same letters mention, that his Royal Highness Prince Henry was expected at Leipsic as this day, where he intended passing a week with his Prussian Majesty. Count Finkerstein sets out to-morrow for Leipsic.

Hamburgh, Dec. 17. We learn from Dantzick, that the Russian troops which still remain in Prussia, having now sold their magazines, were to evacuate that kingdom totally before the end of this month, in order to return to Russia.

Dusseldorff, Dec. 17. We hear there has been a great tumult at Wesel, but do not yet know the particulars. It is said to have been appeased with difficulty, and that most of the magistrates have been sent to prison. This town is to be evacuated before the end of this month; and the Palatine troops that are to enter into garrison here, are ready to march from Juliers and Duren on the first notice.

Cologne, Dec. 17. It is probable the garrison the French have had here, ever since April 1757, will soon quit this town, as the commandant has delivered the keys of the city to the Burgher Masters, also the posts on the ramparts, and the artillery they had taken out of the arsenal.

A reform has already been made in the corps commanded by M. de Conflans, quartered in the dutchy of Juliers, of 20 men per company, which has made the travelling dangerous.

Liege, Dec. 18. Four battalions of French militia passed this place the 15th, in their return to France. Yesterday the privy council received, from the court of Brussels, requisitorial letters for the passage of six divisions of Austrian troops, coming from the Low Countries. The number of men in each division is not specified, but it is said that each division has 14 carts with baggage. They were to begin their march the 15th, and it is expected they will arrive on our territories to-day.

Hague, Dec. 21. We hear from Madrid, that the King of Spain has granted a pension of ten thousand livres to the widow of Don Velasco, who so bravely defended the Moro Fort at the Havannah; and has given his son a title of nobility in Castile, which he is to bear by the name of the Marquis of the Fort Moro. His majesty has likewise given directions, that there should be always, for the future, one ship in the royal navy of the name of Velasco.

By the accounts received here from the Empire, the Prussian detachments were returning into Saxony, with the contributions which they had raised during their late expedition.

Dinkelspiel, Dec. 6. The Prussian troops extend themselves more and more, and are already in the Circle of Suabia. Several inhabitants of the country of Wirtemberg, and Baden Durlach, are sending away their effects to the towns of Switzerland, particularly to Basil.

There is great appearance also, that Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick, as soon as the Allied troops are all settled in their winter quarters, will repair to the King; and that if, after the Definitive Treaty between France and England, the war between us and the Austrians should continue, his Highness will be employed in his Majesty's armies.

Leipsic, Dec. 10. It is reported that four of the principal Electors have resolved to recal their contingents from the army of the Empire.

Munster, Dec. 14. The French are preparing to evacuate Wesel, Cleves, Guelders, and other places belonging to the King of Prussia upon the Lower Rhine; but it is not yet known whether they are to be restored to the troops of that Monarch, or if a detachment of those of the Empress Queen in the Low Countries, will come to take possession of them.

Bremen, Dec. 13. The King of Great-Britain has ordered the ammunition to be paid for, which the Allied army took from hence.

Moscow, Nov. 15. The Empress keeps her apartments, not through illness, but precaution. The Count Woronzow has given a grand entertainment to the Earl of Buckinghamshire, to which all the foreign Ministers were invited.

Vienna, Dec. 11. We daily expect the news of a general action between the Prince of Holberg and the Prussians in Franconia.

Franconia, Dec. 14. General Kleist is retired, with the troops under his command, to Schleussingen, where he was joined by 1000 men under Col. Trimbach. The army of the Empire is arrived in the neighbourhood of Nuremberg, and is quartered in the villages thereabouts. The head-quarters are now at Lauff.

Hamburgh, Dec. 17. The Prussian irruption into Franconia makes a great noise. The Princes of the Empire once took a resolution to apply for succour to the French King, as guarantee of the treaty of Westphalia, but this design was waved on their being informed that the French troops were, in consequence of the preliminaries between England and that crown, to evacuate the Empire so soon as the ratifications were exchanged, and to return no more during this war.

Antwerp, Dec. 21. It is rumoured that the Austrian General Marshal Piza is to have the command of the troops that are to repair to the Lower Rhine, in order to take possession of the cities, evacuated by the French, belonging to the King of Prussia. Others say, that General Argenteau is appointed to this command.

Paris, Dec. 27. The Duke of Bedford is preparing a great equipage, in order to his public entry in quality of ambassador extraordinary from his Britannic Majesty, which is to be made about the middle of February next. This ceremony will give an additional lustre to the festivals then to be celebrated, on account of the conclusion of the peace; and to augment the splendor of this solemnity, an equestrian statue of his present Majesty, already finished, is then to be erected.

LONDON, December 27.

Orders were sent on Thursday night to the War-office, to continue the light troops in full pay till the 23d of next month, not being yet ready to dismiss them.

Yesterday there was a cabinet council at St. James's, on affairs relating to the army, at which Lord Ligonier, and several officers of the army, assisted.

It is reported that the Earl of Granville will soon resign his place of President of the Council, on account of his great age, and bad state of health; and that the Lord Chancellor is to resign the Seals, and succeed him in that important post, which will occasion a general promotion among the gentlemen of the law.

We learn from Spain, that the money and effects of the Count de Superunda, late Viceroy of Peru, which had been landed at Ferrol from the Havannah, had been seized by the government, and the Count himself was expected to be put under arrest; that the money belonging to private persons, returned from the Havannah, had also been seized, because they had neglected to register it; but it was thought it would be restored.

From Ratisbon they send us a rumour, that the Ministers of England and Prussia have been ordered by the Grand Signior to quit Constantinople.

Letters by this day's mail advise, that a negotiation between the Courts of Vienna and Berlin is in great forwardness.

We have also a report, that the Count de Seilern is coming to to England with the character of Minister Plenipotentiary from the Empress Queen, to renew the good understanding between the two Courts.

Advices from Amsterdam pretend, that according to letters received here from Batavia, of the 6th of May, the English have [illegible] considerable check on the coast of Coromandel, by the [illegible] attempt against the Isle of France; and that in an action at sea we have also suffered a very great loss. Other letters from the same place bring, that six of our vessels have been sunk near the Isle of France; but it is hoped this will all prove Dutch news.

A gentleman from Portsmouth writes, that the French Prisoners there, express the utmost dissatisfaction on their being ordered home; and that great numbers of them, who were ordered on board for their return to France, had made their escape.

Last week the Buckingham Militia was disembodied at Ailesbury, and had given them their regimental cloaths, knapsacks, &c. and each of them 14 days pay, to carry them to their respective homes.

Dec. 28. A report was this day most currently spread about the town, that the French have already sent ten men of war to the East-Indies, in order to be before hand with us, and shew us some true French faith; and that a fleet of ours is also going there.

It was also very strongly affirmed, that great obstacles to the definitive treaty had arisen, in consequence of some disputes between the French and English East-India companies.

The Family Compact privateer, of St. Sebastians, of 10 guns, and 100 men, is taken by the Boston frigate, Sir Thomas Adams, and brought into Plymouth.

The Calcutta Indiaman has actually brought home the last Frenchmen that remained on the whole continent of Asia; and Bencoolen, on the island of Sumatra, was retaken above fifteen months ago, by three of our Indiamen.

By this ship we have also advice, that the forces destined for an expedition against the Manilla Islands were all ready to proceed, and only waited for an account of the declaration of war against Spain, and were in great expectations of success. But we have a less pleasing account of the intended attack on the French at Mauritius, wisely planned by the late Minister, for their utter extirpation from that quarter of the globe. Admiral Cornish, during his cruize and delay, in expectation of the promised succours from Europe, buried upwards of one thousand brave sailors, besides landmen, and returned sickly and distressed.

Admiralty Office, Dec. 24. Vice Admiral Sir Charles Saunders gives an account, in his letter of the 9th of last month, from Gibraltar, that the day before arrived at that port, His Majesty's ship the Brune, commanded by Captain Tonyn, with the Oiseau, a French frigate of 26 guns, and about 240 men, which he fell in with and took the 23d of October, about 7 leagues N. W. by W. from Carthagena. The Brune had 6 men killed, and 14 wounded, in the engagement; and there were 49 killed and wounded on board the Oiseau. The Chevalier de Modene, her Captain, lost his right-arm; three of his officers are wounded, and all the rest of them killed.

St. JOHN, in ANTIGUA, December 29.

His Majesty's Sloop the Virgin has brought in two Privateers of 10 and 6 Guns, which she took off Guadaloupe, after a pretty smart Action.

A Drougher belonging to this Place was taken a few Days ago by a small Spanish Privateer, as she was coming round to St. John's Road from English Harbour, loaded with King's Stores.

Jan. 19. The Ship Royal Duke, Capt. Michael Tovey, from Guadaloupe for London, run ashore on the Northwest Part of the Island of Barbuda, the 9th Instant, at Night; the last Account from thence was on the 16th Instant, when the Ship lay on her Broad-side, they had saved only 20 odd Pipes of Wine, 30 odd Casks of Coffee, and some of the Ship's Stores, which, with what else can be saved, will be brought to Antigua, and sold for the Benefit of the concerned. There is no hope of saving the Ship. Captain Tovey, and most of the Ship's Company are yet at Barbuda, endeavouring to save as much of the Cargo as possible. None of the People are lost.

Jan. 26. We hear from St. Martins, that there are 21 Sail of Vessels expected shortly from the Mount at St. Eustatius, and that there was an Embargo laid there on all the Outward-bound Vessels, to prevent the English receiving any Intelligence of them.

His Majesty's Ship the Levant, Captain Laforey, has taken a large Sloop of 14 Guns, loaded with Sugars, &c. from the Mount, and bound to St. Eustatius; she has also taken a Spanish Privater, and retaken her Prize, a Brig from North-America.

Feb. 2. We hear that Capt. Laforey, of his Majesty's Ship the Levant, has taken 5 Vessels, which were bound from the Cape to St. Eustatius, and carried them to St. Christopher's.

A Spanish Privateer of 8 Guns arrived here last Monday in a very shattered Condition, having been boarded and taken by his Majesty's Sloop the Antigua, Capt. Marshall, off Desead. It seems the Antigua there met with 4 Privateers, two of the strongest of which agreed to board her together; but as she gave them but little Time to concert their Plan, and her Intention was to conquer both, if she could by any Means close them; she found an Opportunity of pouring a Broadside into, and boarding, the first she came up with, singly. The Enemy would not, however, immediately surrender; and as it was necessary to make short Work, in order to be ready to receive the other Privateer, the Attack was made with suitable Vigour, and the Spaniards suffered a great deal, both in killed and wounded.---But this Resistance enabled the other Privateer to make her escape.

Feb. 9. We hear the November Picket was taken by a Bayonne Privateer, which cruises to windward of Guadaloupe, and has taken many Prizes.

Accounts from most of the neighbouring Islands mention the great Number of Privateers that now cruise in these Seas; but as few Vessels are expected before the Cessation of Hostilities by Sea, it is hoped they cannot do much further Mischief; especially as our Cruisers (particularly Admiral Rodney's Tender, the Providence) have been successful against them.

It is said that the Trade of St. Eustatius never flourished more than at present, being carried on to a very great Extent not only to St. Domingo and the other Countries of the Enemy, but even to Guadaloupe, Martinico, Grenada, and the other Islands conquered by Britain; it having been (as we are informed) a common Practice, to clear out Vessels in the English Islands for these Places, which Vessels afterwards went to St. Eustatius to load. For a Time their double Papers afforded them a full Protection; but at last the Enemy's Privateers became so well acquainted with the Practice, that the Masters, after producing their Dutch Papers, have been tortured in the most rigourous Manner to extort from them a Confession of the English.

Feb. 23. His Majesty's Sloop the Virgin, having been lately ordered to see clear of the Islands some Vessels, bound from Martinico to Jamaica, Philadelphia, and other Places in North-America, was attacked by three Privateers, of much superior Force, who handled her pretty roughly, and took three of the Convoy.

Capt. Brown, in a Sloop with Horses from New-London, and bound to this Island, was cast away on Barbuda last Monday Se'nnight.

The Snow Northern Lass, Capt. Nevill, from Ireland, bound to North-America, was blown off the Coast, and arrived here on Sunday last.

Capt. Ross, in a large Ship from Casco-Bay, bound for Jamaica, ran aground upon a Reif near the Diamond on Monday last, and we hear she has now six Feet of Water in her Hold.------Capt. Ross sailed in Company with the Ship Lyon, for this Place, which Ship sprung a Leak at Sea, and put 14 Men on board to assist her; and it was to re-ship those Men (in case the Lyon had been arrived) that he steered for this Port.

CHARLES-TOWN (in SOUTH-CAROLINA) Feb. 23.

There are now in this Harbour 4 Men of War, viz. Mercury, Success, Nightingale and Bonetta.

The Schooner Havannah-Packet, Samuel Newbould, Master, of and from this Port, with a valuable Cargo for the Havannah, we hear is taken by a Spanish Privateer, within Sight of the Moro Castle. It is likewise said that the Brigantine Port-Royal, with a valuable Cargo from Bristol for the Havannah, is taken and sent into Cape-Francois.

BOSTON, February 28.

A Letter has been lately received by a Gentleman in Salem, from Captain Jebois, in Bayonne Gaol, wherein he gives an Account that Captain James Gibbons of Philadelphia was in Goal with him; and this Information is given by the Desire of Capt. Gibbons, that his Friends in Philadelphia might know where he was.

It is reported that Captain Doubledee, in a Vessel belonging to this Place, and three or four other Vessels belonging to Salem and Marblehead, were cut out of a Harbour in Martinico, by some of the Enemy's Privateers.

ELIZABETH-TOWN (in New-Jersey) March 1, 1763.

Last Night, about 12 o'Clock, a Fire broke out in the Dwelling House of Captain Hampton, of this Town; which would have been all consumed in a few Minutes, had not Mr. Hampton and his Wife been alarmed by the Fall of a large Looking-Glass, in the Common Parlour. At first Sight Mr. Hampton judged it past Recovery, and was getting out Writings and best Things in his Bed-Room, but his two young Daughters, who slept at the other End of the House, hearing their Mother's Shrieks, ran immediately out through the Entry, which was full of Smoke and Fire; they had Resolution to attempt to save the House, and in a little Time called for their Father, and raised the Neighbours, who all came to their Assistance, and by their Means the House was saved. The Fire began in the Mantle-Tree, occasioned by a new fashioned Fire Place, being made in another Room, which cast all the Heat forward; the Parlour and Room over it was consumed, with all the Furniture; Mr. Hampton got very much burnt at first opening the Door. The saving the House looks like a Miracle to every one who sees it, and it is hoped it will be a Caution to all who make the new fashioned Fire Places, to take out all the Wood Mantle-Trees.

NEW-YORK, March 10.

Extract of a Letter from South-Carolina.

"A great Quarrel has arisen between our Governor, and Commons House of Assembly, on Occasion of a Reason given in the Governor's Speech, for the Dissolution of a late Commons House of Assembly, viz. that some of the Members were not legally admitted to a Seat in the House. Upon the Meeting of the present House, they immediately ordered the Committee of Privileges, &c. to enquire into the Causes of the said Dissolution, and report them, with their Opinion thereupon, to the House; this being done, and approved, the House drew up a Remonstrance to the Governor, asserting their Right to the sole Judgment of the Qualifications of the Members of their own Body, complaining of an Invasion of that Right, and praying the Governor, that for the future he would have due Regard to their Rights and Privileges, and protect them in them. With this Remonstrance they sent a Copy of the Committee's Report and Resolutions, which were in Justification of the Proceedings of the former Assembly, and censuring the Governor's Conduct, in taking Notice of Matters passed in the House that were not constitutionally brought before him by their Report, refusing to administer the State Oaths required by Law, when desired by the House, to Members they had judged legally qualified, and in dissolving the House for Matters only cognizable by themselves. The Governor in his Answer treated them with Haughtiness, and several Indications of Contempt, and yet the Answer is not destitute of Smartness, and Plausibility of Reasoning, sufficient to lead some Men of good Sense, if not entirely impartial, to think his Conduct Right. Yet his Haughtiness, contemptuous Expressions, and peremptory Determinations, would not be easily justified. He tells them a Member admitted into the last Assembly, was not duly chosen and returned according to the Laws of the Province, that his Commission and his Duty required him to enforce those Laws, which Act of his Duty they declare to be a Violation of their Privileges; that they assumed a Power never claimed by the British Parliament, of solely examining, and finally determining the Election of their own Members, that the last House endeavoured to give Validity to an Election the Law did not warrant, violated the Law, and assumed a Power they had no Right to, and therefore he dissolved them. The Propriety of which would have appeared by the Answer of the returning Officer, who was called into the House for that Purpose, but a Determination to be Wrong, prevented them from asking him the Question. He was determined to give them no other Answer, and to persevere. He concluded thus, "But Gentlemen, you have a good and gracious Sovereign, ever ready to discountenance Oppression, and to crush an arbitrary and imperious Governor, who dares to trample on the People's Liberties; prefer then your Complaints to the Royal Ear; to the King I am responsible for what I have done or may do, but the Power of adjourning, of proroguing, or dissolving an Assembly, abruptly, precipitately, unadvisedly, for a good, an insufficient, or no reason at all, I may and shall exercise without your Controul; and having, now at least, maturely deliberated on the Step I took with the last Assembly, I applaud myself for having checked constitutionally, so dangerous an Usurpation."

To this the Assembly made a Reply, vindicating themselves, and refuting the Governor's Arguments in every particular. This Reply is, in my Opinion, a masterly Performance, every where reasonable, clear, full, decent, spirited, and consistent, and must, I think, be allowed conclusive in their Favour, by every competent and impartial Judge. To this the Governor made the following verbal Answer. "I refer you, Gentlemen, to my former Answer. If you think 40 more Messages of this Sort can be of the least Service to the Province, I am ready chearfully to receive them all; but you must give me Leave to rely solely and absolutely on the Inefficacy of what you can say or do to fully my past Conduct, or future Reputation."

This was on the 11th of December, and on the 16th the Commons ordered their following Resolutions to be printed in the public Papers.

Resolved, That his Excellency the Governor, by having repeatedly and contemptuously denied the just Claims of this House (solely to examine and determine the Validity of the Elections of their own Members) hath violated the Rights and Privileges of the Commons House of Assembly of this Province.

Resolved, That this House (having ineffectually applied to his Excellency for Satisfaction of the above Breach of Privilege) will not enter in any further Business with him, until his Excellency shall have done Justice to this House, on this important Point."

Last Tuesday Week, Mr. Samuel Ball, of Newark, in New-Jersey, in crossing Hackinsack River, on the Ice, fell in with his Horse and Sleigh, and was drowned: His Body was found the Sunday following, and decently interred.

SMITH's Royal Patent Medicinal SNUFF,

So justly famous for the CURE of most DISTEMPERS.

THIS excellent Medicine operates on the Head as a Stimulator and Purgative, on the Stomach and Lungs as an Attenuator, and on the Blood and Juices as an Alterative.

By its Operation on the Head, it cures recent Lunacies, Dizziness, Deafness, inflamed Eyes, and Defect of Sight; breaks and carries off Imposthumations, Quinseys, and enlivens the Spirits, quickening and awaking them from indolent and lethargic Stupor, dispersles all growing or congregated Vapours, creating intense Pain in any Part of the Head, Face or Gums, and the Polypus in the Nose, it gradually eradicates.

By the like Power on the Stomach and Lungs, it dissolves coagulated Matter, formed by bad Air, diseased Fluids, or other Casualties; thus removing all Obstructions, the Original of most Diseases, it suddenly relieves the Asthma, Catarrh, and Phthisick, recovers to the Stomach and Nerves their genial Tone and Action, and utterly annihilates all hysterical Disorders.

By its efficacious, alterative and purifying Quality, it cleanses the Blood and Reins from all vicious concrete Impurities, and cures the evil, scorbutick, leprous Humours, and pestilential Fevers, banishes all Relicks of unskilful Physicking, and re-establishes the whole Animal Oeconomy in all their natural Functions.

Its singular Use and Excellence consists in being pleasant in the Taking, happy in the Operation, and morally certain in the Cure; hinders no Business, Eating, or Drinking; not causing, but preventing and curing Colds.

The Manner of its Operation is various, as the Habit of the Body inclines, but most generally by the Channel of the Nose, or Urine, the most ready or least disagreeable Way of carrying off all Obstructions.

It is excellent in all nervous Disorders, by the Assistance of a Pill, called the Nervous Pill, which operates as a gentle Opener and Purifyer. Likewise a Preparative, called Tinctura Amara Indiana, that comforts and strengthens the Stomach, assists Digestion, and gives Vigour to the Appetite.

An Ointment to be used outwardly in leprous, evil and gross Habits, removing the external Scurf, in Proportion as the Snuff eradicates all internal Obstructions, gives the Blood, and Juices that feed it, a free Circulation, and purifies the whole Mass.

These are all so safe in their Operations, that People of any Kind of Occupations may not be obstructed at the Time of taking them, they chiefly acting as Alteratives.

PHILADELPHIA.

The COMMISSIONERS for paving and cleanſing the Streets of this City, have hitherto forborne to proſecute any Perſon for laying "Shavings, Aſhes, Dung, or other Filth on the Pavements," for which the Law impoſes a Fine of Twenty Shillings, but now find themſelves under the diſagreeable Neceſſity to put it in Execution; and as ſundry other Regulations are made by a Supplement to the former Act, the following Extracts from it are publiſhed, viz.

AND be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, after the Publication of this Act, caſt or throw down out of any Cart, Waggon, or other Carriage, any Rubbiſh, Dirt or Earth, in any public Street, Lane or Alley of the City of Philadelphia, ſave only in ſuch Parts and Places as ſhall be appointed and agreed on by the ſaid Commiſſioners for pitching and paving the ſaid Streets, every ſuch Perſon ſhall forfeit and pay, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of Five Shillings, and pay the Coſt of removing the ſame: And if any Perſon or Perſons, ſave the ſaid Commiſſioners, ſhall deſtroy, remove, or pull down any Bars, Chain, Rope or Fence, which the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall hereafter cauſe to be ſet up in, or across the ſaid Streets, Lanes or Alleys, for the Preſervation of the Pavements then newly made, or to be made, every ſuch Perſon who ſhall offend in the Premiſes, ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Shillings for every ſuch Offence.

And whereas ſome Doubts have ariſen whether the Owners of Houſes and Lots, before whoſe Fronts the Cart-way was paved, before the Paſſing of the ſaid Act, to which this Act is a Supplement, were obliged and directed, by the ſame Act, to pave the Foot-way, and it is not therein appointed and aſcertained with what Materials the ſaid Foot-way ſhall be made and paved, nor at whoſe Expence the Gutters for carrying off the Water, and Poſts for keeping off the Carriages, ſhall be found, provided and ſet up; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Owner or Owners, or the Tenant or Tenants of every Houſe or Lot within the ſaid City, before whoſe Front the Cart-way has been at any Time before the Paſſing of this Act, or ſhall hereafter be paved, ſhall, at his, her or their private Expence, pave and repair the Foot-way, of ſuch Breadth into the Street, with good ſound well burnt Bricks, or good ſquare flat Stone, and ſhall make, pave, repair, and amend the Gutters to the ſaid Pavement belonging or adjoining, of ſuch Width and Depth, and ſhall provide, find, and ſet up ſo many Poſts of ſuch Length, Form and Thickneſs, and of ſuch Timber for keeping the Carriages off and from the ſaid Foot-way, and in ſuch Manner as ſhall be ordered and directed by the Mayor or Recorder, and four of the Aldermen, with any four of the ſaid Commiſſioners for cleanſing and paving the ſaid Streets, under the Penalty of One Shilling for every Foot fronting his ſaid Houſe or Lot ſo neglected to be made, paved, amended or repaired; and Two Shillings and Six-pence for every Poſt ſo neglected to be ſet up: And in ſuch Caſe the ſaid Commiſſioners, or a Majority of them, ſhall make, amend and repair the ſaid Foot-way, Gutters or Water Courſes, and find, provide, and ſet up the ſaid Poſts, out of the Monies to be raiſed by Virtue of the Act to which this Act is a Supplement, and ſhall recover as well the Money ſo expended for the Purpoſes laſt aforeſaid, as the Money expended by them in building and erecting the Walls aforeſaid, with the Fines and Forfeitures aforeſaid, of the Owner or Owners, if reſident within the ſaid City, or of the Tenant of ſuch Owner or Owners, if they ſhall reſide elſewhere, before the Mayor, Recorder, or any Alderman of the ſaid City, in the ſame Manner as Debts, not exceeding Five Pounds, are, by Law, directed to be recovered before the Juſtices of the Peace of the reſpective Counties within this Province; and that the Sum or Sums of Money ſo expended by the Tenant, in and towards the Purpoſes aforeſaid, ſhall be allowed by the Owner or Owners, out of ſuch Rent as ſhall be then due, or ſhall thereafter become due, any Law, Uſage or Cuſtom to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And whereas the Paving the Streets of the City of Philadelphia will be attended with a great Expence to the Inhabitants thereof, and it is neceſſary that due Care be taken to preſerve the Pavements, when made, from any and every avoidable and unneceſſary Injury which may accrue from the Uſe thereof: And whereas nothing can be more deſtructive to Pavements of any Kind, and particularly to thoſe newly made, than the Carrying of large and exceſſive Weights and Burthens in Carriages, the Fellies of the Wheels whereof are of ſmall Breadth, and narrow Dimenſions, whereby the Stones of ſuch Pavements are looſened and tore up, and the Pavements themſelves, in a great Meaſure, ruined and deſtroyed; for Remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Waggon, Wain or Cart whatſoever, belonging to any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, reſiding or inhabiting within the ſaid City of Philadelphia, or within the Northern Liberties thereof, or within the Diſtrict of Southwark, or the Townſhip of Moyamenſing or Paſſyunk, ſhall travel, paſs or be drawn on any of the paved Parts of the ſaid City, from and after the Firſt Day of March, in the Year One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty-four, with any greater Number of Beaſts of Draught than three, if a four Wheel Carriage, and if a two Wheel Carriage, with any greater Number of Beaſts of Draught than two, unleſs the Fellies of ſuch Wheels ſhall be of the Breadth or Gauge of ſeven Inches from Side to Side at the leaſt; and that from and after the Firſt Day of March, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty-ſix, no ſuch Wheel Carriage, belonging to Perſons reſiding in the Places aforeſaid, ſhall travel, paſs or be drawn in the ſaid City, with or by any Number of Oxen or Horſes whatſoever, unleſs the Fellies of the Wheels thereof ſhall be of the Breadth or Gauge of ſeven Inches from Side to Side at the leaſt, Carts with one Horſe, Stage and light travelling Waggons for Paſſengers only excepted; and that every Owner or Owners of ſuch Wheel Carriage, which ſhall paſs or be drawn in the ſaid City, contrary to the Directions, Tenor, true Intent and Meaning of this Act, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds, to be recovered as Debts not exceeding Five Pounds are by Law directed to be recovered, or otherwiſe ſhall forfeit any one of the Beaſts of Draught drawing ſuch Wheel Carriage (except the Shaft or Thill Horſe) together with all the Gears, Bridles, Halters and Accoutrements to ſuch Beaſt of Draught belonging; one Moiety thereof to the Uſe of the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall ſeize or diſtrain the ſame, and the other Half thereof to the Commiſſioners, to be applied for paving the Streets.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Seizure or Diſtreſs, as aforeſaid, ſhall deliver the Horſe or Oxen, ſo ſeized and diſtrained, with the Accoutrements aforeſaid, into the Cuſtody of ſome one of the Conſtables of the ſaid City; and every ſuch Conſtable is hereby required to take and receive, and ſafely keep the ſame, till the Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Seizure or Diſtreſs ſhall make Proof, upon Oath or Affirmation, before ſome Juſtice or Juſtices of the ſaid City, of the Offence committed; and the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices, before whom ſuch Proof ſhall be made to their Satisfaction, is and are hereby impowered and required to iſſue his or their Precept to ſuch Conſtable, to ſell and diſpoſe of the Beaſt ſo forfeited, with the Accoutrements aforeſaid, at public Auction or Vendue, firſt giving due Notice of ſuch Sale, and to pay the Money ariſing from ſuch Sale, one Moiety thereof to the Party or Parties ſo ſeizing or diſtraining the ſaid Beaſt, and the other Moiety to the ſaid Commiſſioners for paving the ſaid Streets, after deducting thereout ſuch reaſonable Charges as the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices ſhall allow or direct: But in caſe no ſuch Proof ſhall be made within Twenty-four Hours next after ſuch Seizure, that then ſuch Beaſt ſhall be returned to the Owner or Owners thereof, he or they paying ſuch reaſonable Charges as the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices ſhall allow and direct.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall hinder or prevent, or obſtruct the Meaſuring or Gauging of the Fellies of ſuch Wheels, or the Seizing or Diſtraining of any Horſe or Beaſt of Draught hereby directed to be forfeited, or ſhall uſe any Violence to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall attempt to meaſure and gauge the ſaid Fellies, or to ſeize or diſtrain ſuch Beaſt as aforeſaid, every ſuch Perſon ſo offending ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Pounds, being thereof legally convicted in any Court of Quarter Seſſions of the Peace in and for the ſaid City.

Provided always nevertheleſs, That if it ſhall appear that the Fellies of ſuch Wheels were originally made of the full Breadth preſcribed and directed by this Act, and to have become leſs by the Wear of long Uſage, unleſs the ſame ſhall be leſs than Six Inches wide, the Penalties and Forfeitures hereby impoſed on the Owner or Owners thereof ſhall not be incurred, nor the ſame recovered in Manner aforeſaid, or in any other Manner whatſoever.

O D E!

Attempted in the Horatian Style.

To the ingenious Mr. Th---s G-df--y. By Mr. -------.

MAT to HAL.

I.

WHILE you, dear Hal, are forc'd to roam
In Search of Fortune, far from Home,
O'er Bogs, o'er Seas and Mountains,
I too, debarr'd the ſoft Retreat
Of ſhady Groves, and Murmur ſweet
Of Silver prattling Fountains,

II.

Muſt mingle with the buſtling Throng,
And bear my Load of Care along,
Like any other Sinner:------
For where's the Extaſy in this,
To loiter in poetic Bliſs,
And go without a Dinner?

III.

Flaccus, we know, immortal Bard!
With mighty Kings and Stateſmen far'd,
And liv'd in chearful Plenty;
But, now, in theſe degenerate Days
The ſlight Reward of empty Praiſe
Scarce One receives in Twenty.

IV.

Well might the Roman Swan along
The pleaſing Tiber pour his Song,
Endu'd with Eaſe and Quiet:
Oft did he grace Mæcenas' Board,
Who would for him throw by the Lord,
And in Falernian riot.

V.

But, deareſt Hal, theſe Days are paſt,
And we are in a Climate caſt
Where Few the Muſe can reliſh;
Where all the Doctrine now that's told,
Is that a ſhining Heap of Gold
Alone can Man embelliſh.

VI.

Then, ſince 'tis thus, let's join the Croud,
And with the Reſt proclaim aloud
That Money is all Virtue;
And, Hal, when e'er you hap to find
This Counſel ſlip your honeſt Mind,
D'ye hear ----- theſe Lines adhere to.

VII.

So that, in Time, we may retreat
To ſome fair Villa, fit to greet,
And entertain the Muſes;
And then Life's Noiſe and Trouble leave,
Completely bleſt, we'll never grieve
At what the World refuſes.

BOSTON, March 7.

We hear from Milton, that a Sheep having ſtrayed to a ſmall Diſtance from a Flock in the Snow Storm that happened in the Night following the 2d Day of January laſt, took Shelter under a Stone Wall, and was there ſo covered with Snow, that ſhe was not found until the 31ſt of ſaid Month; when a Boy accidentally paſſing on the Snow near where the Sheep lay, broke through the Cruſt into the Cavity occaſioned by her Breath; from whence ſhe was taken: It was ſeveral Days before ſhe could uſe her Limbs, or eat any Thing; however, through the Care of the Owner, the Sheep is now, to Appearance, as ſtrong and active as ever.

Laſt Tueſday Afternoon a melancholy Affair happened at the North End; two young Children, about 5 or 6 Years of Age, Daughters of a Gentleman lately arrived from Newfoundland, having picked up a Piece of Arſenick, which lay careleſly about the Houſe, the Family not knowing what it was, but thought it to be a Bit of Alabaſter, and the Children taking it to be Loaf Sugar, they both eat of it, and the Poiſon immediately operated to ſuch a Degree that they both died the ſame Night.

Laſt Saturday Night about One o'Clock, a ſmall Schooner from Marblehead, Bowen, Maſter, overſet at the Long Wharff, and filled with Water, and had it not been for the Aſſiſtance of the Watch, the People on board would have been drowned.

The many repeated Storms of Snow we have had ſince Chriſtmas, has filled the Town and Country in ſuch a Manner that the Travelling is ſtill very bad:---It is imagined that the Snow is upon a Level between 3 and 4 Feet high, in the Country.---Several Perſons who have come from Rutland, Deerfield, &c. were obliged to travel with Rackets (Snow Shoes) to Shrewſbury, there being no Paths on that Road.

NEW-PORT, February 28.

The Sloop Victory, Captain Sheffield, belonging to this Port, was caſt away on Cape-Hatteras, about two Months ago, and was entirely loſt, but the Men all ſaved.

NEW-YORK, March 14.

Thurſday Night laſt Captain Kipp arrived here from the Havannah, in 13 Days: By him we learn, That the Day he ſailed from thence, Advice was received there over Land from St. Jago De Cuba, of the Peace between Great Britain, France and Spain, which News was received there with great Joy by the Spaniards; that it was grown very healthy at the Havannah, inſomuch that during Captain Kipp's Stay there, which was about a Fortnight, he heard of no more than one natural Death; that ſeveral Veſſels arrived there lately from London, Briſtol, and Liverpool, and the Captains Farrel, Gibbs and Roſe, from this Port.

Captain Kipp ſays, That a French Privateer Sloop, from the Miſſiſippi, has lately cruized off the Matanzas, and taken ſeveral Veſſels, among them a Veſſel from Briſtol.

A Letter from on board the Venus Tranſport, dated Havannah February 24, 1763, informs of their being attacked on their Paſſage, the 15th. off the Iſland of Cuba, by a Privateer of 14 Carriage Guns, 6 Swivels, and Small Arms; and that the Venus ſoon beat her off. She fought under French Colours, and took a Ship a few Days before off the Moro. The Venus was much damaged in her Rigging, and had only two Men wounded.

Captain Tolmie, in a Brig from the Havannah for Jamaica, is loſt at Morant.

Laſt Sunday Week Champion Sampſon, in a Schooner, arrived here in 4 Days from James's River, in Virginia, where Captain Topham, in a Schooner from Boſton, was juſt arrived. A Man belonging to Captain Topham, named William Godfrey, in going up the Shrouds to hand down the Tackles, fell on the Deck, and was killed on the Spot.

Launcelot Lawrence, in a Schooner belonging to this Port, was lately taken by a Spaniſh Privateer, within three Leagues of the Moro Caſtle; the Schooner was carried off, but he and ſome of his People took to their Boat, and got aſhore. This is the ſecond Time Captain Lawrence has been taken ſince he left this Port.

PHILADELPHIA, March 24.

On Monday next the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of this Province meets here.

From Liſbon we have Advice, that His Majeſty's Ship Marlborough foundered at Sea, on her Paſſage from the Havannah to England; but that the Antelope Man of War luckily fell in with her, and took out a great Quantity of Money, which ſhe had on board, and all the Men, and carried it and them to Liſbon.

And from the ſame Place we further learn, that the Brigantine Pocock, Captain Robeſon, bound in here from Providence, alſo foundered at Sea, when the People took to their Boat, and were happily met with, and taken up, by the Snow Joanna, Captain Ramſay, of this Port, bound to Liſbon, where they all arrived ſafe.

On Thurſday Night laſt a Fire broke out in a Carpenter's Shop near Cherry Alley, which intirely conſumed the ſame, and a Stable under it, but was prevented from doing any other Damage.

From the LONDON MAGAZINE for November, 1762.

The NATURE and PROPERTIES of MARLE.

Extracted from Mr. MILLS's New and Complete Syſtem of Practical HUSBANDRY.

IN treating of the manures proper for light and ſandy ſoils, and after preferring Marle to all the reſt, he proceeds as follows:

"Marle is either grey, blue, brown, yellow, red, or mixed, and is known by its pure and uncompounded nature, beſides which, it is diſtinguiſhed by ſeveral other marks, ſuch as, its breaking into little ſquare bits; its falling eaſily to pieces, by the force of a blow, or upon being expoſed to the ſun or froſt; its feeling fat and unctuous; and its looking, when dry, after having been expoſed to the weather for ſome time, as if it was covered with a hoar-froſt, or ſprinkled with fine ſalt. Even when mixed with the land intended to be manured by it, the whole ſurface of the ſoil will have that whitiſh appearance. But the moſt unerring way to judge of marle, and to know it from any other ſubſtance that may reſemble it, is, to break a piece as big as a large nutmeg, and when it is quite dry drop it into a glaſs of clear water, where, if it be the right ſort, it will ſoon diſſolve into a ſoft and almoſt impalpable pap, ſhooting up many ſparkles to the ſurface of the water. Some marles effervеſce but little with acids; but they ſhould always be put to that trial; becauſe the more they effervеſce them, the more valuable they are as manures. In hot weather, good marle will ſlack with the heat of the ſun, like lime; eſpecially if any rain follows a hot day.

The farmers in Staffordſhire reckon the ſoft blue marle, moſt commonly found under clay, or low black grounds, at the depth of ſeven or eight feet, the beſt for arable land, and the grey ſort the beſt for paſture. That which is of a browniſh colour, with blue veins in it, and little lumps of chalk or lime-ſtone, generally lying under ſtiff clays, and very hard to dig, is moſt eſteemed in Cheſhire. The marle which is uſually found at the depth of about two feet, or a yard, on the ſide of hills, and in wet boggy grounds, which have a light ſand in them, is very fat and cloſe, and reckoned the ſtrongeſt of all marles; for which reaſon it is particularly good for ſandy lands. This is commonly called peat-marle, or delving-marle. The paper-marle, as it is ſometimes called, frequently lies near coals, and flakes like leaves or pieces of brown paper, than which it is of a ſomewhat lighter colour. That which ſome writers call clay-marle, becauſe it looks like clay, is very fat, and ſometimes mixed with chalk-ſtones. Steel-marle breaks of itſelf, into ſquare cubical bits. Theſe two laſt kinds generally lie under ſand or clay; ſometimes about a yard deep under the former, but often much deeper under the latter.

Stone, ſlate, or flag-marle, which is a kind of ſoft ſtone, or rather ſlate, of a bluiſh colour, is generally allowed to be the beſt. It eaſily diſſolves with froſt or rain, is found near rivers and on the ſides of hills, and is a very laſting manure. An ingenious gentleman, whom the writer of this work has the happineſs to reckon among his moſt valuable friends, paſſing lately through Bedfordſhire, obſerved, that the people employed to mend the highways, were laying upon them a bluiſh kind of ſtone. Struck with the novelty of the appearance, he ſtopt, took up a lump, and ſoon found it to be this blue marle, which the ignorant peaſants were uſing inſtead of real ſtone. The conſequence was, that, when he returned the ſame way ſome time after, a heavy ſhower having fallen, the whole road, where this ſubſtance had been ſo injudiciouſly ſpread, was become a perfect quagmire.

Mr. Markham reckons four ſorts of marle in Suſſex, viz. grey, blue, yellow, and red. The blue is accounted the beſt, the yellow next, and then the grey. The red is the leaſt durable. A great deal of marle in the north country runs much upon the loam; but that in Suſſex is more like fuller's-earth, and therefore muſt certainly be the fatteſt.

Mr. Mortimer ſays, he ſaw a ſample of marle from Derbyſhire, which was very fat, though it contained ſo much ſand, that, when wet, it could not be worked into a ball, or be made to hold together. This marle did very well upon clayey land, becauſe it was of an opening quality.

In many parts of moſt counties in England, marle diſcovers itſelf to the moſt negligent eye; parttcularly on the ſides of broken hills, or deep hollow roads. Many rivers are bordered with a vaſt treaſure, which is plundered by every flood. Boggy lands frequently cover it; and, in them, it ſeldom lies above three Feet deep. It is ſomewhat lower under ſtiff clays and marſhy level grounds. The loweſt parts of moſt ſandy lands abound with it, ſometimes at the depth of three feet, and ſometimes at ſeven, nine, or more. The depth of the marle itſelf can ſeldom be found; for when the upper cruſt of the earth is removed, all that can be ſeen or dug is marle, to ſo great a depth, that there are few, if any inſtances of a marle-pit's having been exhauſted.

Nothing is more common than to find the ditches which incloſe a field, dug ſo deep that they have penetrated ſix or ſeven inches into a bed of marle, without the farmer's taking any notice of it; though the extraordinary ſhooting and increaſe of the graſs which is put forth by the marle thrown up on the ſides of the bank, might, one would think, be a means of diſcovering it. Where the marle is thus accidentally diſcloſed, it not only turfs the ſides and tops of the banks, and thereby ſecures them againſt all injuries of the weather, but makes the graſs grow ſo long and thick, that when beaten down by winds, it hangs as if it thatched the earth which nouriſhed it, and carries off the rain, without letting any great quantity penetrate through it."

"Marle is very common in Ireland, where it ſeldom lies above a foot or two below the ſurface of the ſoil; luckily for that country, which is extremely boggy. But in France, though they have marle in many places, they are often obliged to dig for it very deep, particularly in the province of Artois, where it generally lies eighty or ninety feet under ground, in beds about five feet thick, at the bottom of which frequently is water, which breaks in upon the workmen. On account of the great depth of the marle pits there, extraordinary care is taken to ſet up marks, and rail them in, to prevent the fatal accidents which might otherwiſe happen. The ſame is indeed done in England; but not ſo ſtrictly as it ought to be.

Authors differ widely both as to the quantity and the manner of uſing almoſt all the manures they treat of; points which muſt, in a very great meaſure, depend on the quality of the ſoil, and the ſtrength of the manure, of whatever kind it be, and in which experience will ever be the judicious farmer's ſureſt guide. In marling, it is particularly neceſſary to find the true proportion which the land requires, and better to err in laying on too little, than too much; becauſe more may be added at pleaſure; whereas, by over-doing it, the firſt year's crop often fails, becauſe the body of the marle has not been ſufficiently opened; and, in that caſe, it will ſometimes be two or three years before the ground comes to a proper temper. The beſt directions that can be given to the farmer in the application of this manure to light ſoils, is to lay on the quantity which will give the degree of coheſion wanted in thoſe ſoils. A general rule cannot be laid down in this reſpect; becauſe, the quantity of marle requiſite to effect the deſired end, muſt be different, in proportion to the degree of lightneſs of the ſoil.

Pliny ſpeaks of marle as a ſpecies of improvement known to the Greeks, but more peculiar to Britain and Gaul. He calls it, the fat of the earth, and compares it to the glands in the human body, which are lapped in a coat of fat. As this manure, ſo far as we can find, was not uſed, and probably not to be found, in Italy; it ſhews how attentive the Romans were to agriculture, wherever they carried their victorious arms; ſince, notwithſtanding the continual alarms they lived in from the natives here and in Gaul, they found time to diſcover and perfect a means of improving land, particularly ſuited to the ſoil and climate, and of all others the cheapeſt and moſt laſting.

Before I quit this ſubject, I muſt obſerve, with Dr. Home, that a body very ſimilar to marle in its appearance, but eſſentially different in its effects, is often found in the ſame bed with the beſt marle. It is of a darkiſh lead colour. Inſtead of fertilizing the earth, it renders even the beſt ſoils incapable of bearing any kind of vegetables for many years. I have ſeen, ſays that gentleman, the ſpots on which it was laid entirely barren for three years after, and have heard of its bad effects continuing in other places for a much longer time; nor is it certain when they will ceaſe. A body, ſo very deſtructive to agriculture, deſerves to be well characterized, in order to its being ſhunned; and ſhould be thoroughly examined, that we may know whence proceeds this noxious quality, and how to cure it when it has taken place.

Marle takes a ſmooth poliſh from the inſtrument with which it is wrought. A piece of this taken up, when it has not been much expoſed to the influence of the air, differs greatly in taſte from marle. Inſtead of the ſmooth unctuous taſte of the latter, it is acid, and remarkably aſtringent. It agrees with marle, in crumbling in water, but differs remarkably from it, in not raiſing any effervеſcence with acids, nor in the leaſt deſtroying their acidity. It turns the ſyrup of violets red; which ſhews that it contains an acid: Whereas marle, like all abſorbent earths, gives it a green colour. The trying of marle with acids is therefore the more neceſſary, to guard againſt uſing this pernicious ſubſtance.

It appears from experiments made by the doctor, that this pernicious ſubſtance conſiſts of an earthy body like clay, about an eighteenth part of ſalt of ſteel, and a ſmall proportion of the vitriolic acid; from whence he concludes, that good marle is the proper cure where this noxious earth has been inadvertently uſed; becauſe it corrects the acid, and decompoſes the ſalt."

AT the repeated Solicitations of several Persons, the Ohio Company have agreed to lay off a Number of Lots for a Town at Fort Cumberland, near the Mouth of Willis's Creek, on Potowmack River, in the Province of Maryland; and that each Purchaser may have an Opportunity of attending, and choosing the Lots he may judge most convenient, they will be sold to the highest Bidders on Friday the 15th of April next.

Any one who will consult the Maps must see that Fort Cumberland, from its natural Situation and Contiguity to that very extensive and fertile Country on the Ohio and its Waters, must be the Key to all that valuable Settlement; it being the highest and most convenient Landing-place for the Inhabitants on the other Side the Allegheny Mountains, on all the River Potowmack, which affords a Water Carriage that, with a very inconsiderable Expence, might be rendered Safe, certain and easy, at all Seasons of the Year, from the great Falls to the Spot now proposed for a Town. It is about 75 Miles Land Carriage to the Monongahela, which is navigable to the Ohio for Flat-bottomed Boats or Battoes; and not more than 65 Miles to the Yauyaugaine, where the Road, as it is at present cleared to Pittsburgh, crosses; to which Place the Indians frequently, before the War, brought up their Battoes loaded with Skins; And all who are acquainted with the Country agree that a very good Waggon Road may be made to that very Spot, or even a few Miles lower down the River, which would reduce the Distance from thence to Fort Cumberland at least 15 Miles. The Land Carriage from Pinnmitt's Warehouse, at the Little Falls, which is the highest Tide Water of Potowmack, to the Great Falls, does not exceed 12 Miles; and the Manufactures of Great-Britain may be transported by the Potowmack to the Ohio, and its Produce or Furs remitted through the same Channel, only with 90 Miles Lang Carriage at the Most.

Fort Cumberland is about 115 Miles from Pittsburgh, 30 from Fort Bedford, 60 from Winchester, Land Carriage, good Waggon Roads, and 100 Miles Water Carriage from the Mouth of Conecocheague Creek in Maryland.

The Day the Lots are sold the Ohio Company will lett to the highest Bidder, for a Term of Years, two very good Storehouses, opposite to Fort Cumberland, in Virginia, one 45 by 25, with a Counting-room and Lodging-room at one End, the other 44 by 20, with proper Conveniences for a Family to live in, two Stories high each, besides Garrets, with good dry Cellars, fit for storing Skins, the whole Size of the Houses; and a Kitchen, Stable for 12 Horses, Meat-house and Dairy; there are two good Battoes, which will be given to the Person who Rents the Houses. The whole entirely new, and will be completely finished, and fit to enter upon immediately; and the Person who takes the Store-houses, may also have a Lease, for a Term of Years, of as much Land adjacent to them as he chooses. Any one desirous to treat privately for the Store-houses, &c. before the Day of Sale, or the Town Lots, may know the Terms by applying to the Subscriber, who will attend at Fort Cumberland, on the 15th Day of April before-mentioned, to deliver the Purchasers Deeds for their Lots. There is great Plenty of good Timber and Limestone on the Lands, on each Side of the River; and the Company are building a Saw and Grist-mill, within a Mile of the Spot proposed for the Town.

¶ GEORGE MERCER.

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

By Captain ROBINSON, arrived at New-York from London, we have the following Advices, viz.

MOSCOW (in Ruſſia) November 8.

TWO of the Officers who were concerned in the Plot againſt the Empreſs, have been this Morning degraded, and declared infamous, in the Square before the Caſtle of Cremelin, their Swords having been broke over their Heads.

It is notorious to the whole World, that ſince the Acceſſion of the late Empreſs Elizabeth to the preſent Time, the Puniſhment of Death was aboliſhed throughout the Empire; but the Abuſe which that Lenity had occaſioned, induced the high Tribunal to give Notice, that the Laws which preſcribe that Puniſhment for certain Crimes will be again put in Force.

Dantzick, Nov. 24. The Pruſſian Reſident in this City has of late been very diligent in purchaſing all the Horſes he can find in this Neighbourhood and Provinces adjacent, which he ſends away as faſt as poſſible to Pomerania, where the People are in great Want of Cattle to cultivate their Lands.

Malaga, Nov. 16. Lieutenant Salvert, of the French Frigate L'Oiſeau, the Chevalier de Modene, Commander, is arrived here with 180 of the Crew of that Frigate, and gives the following Account of the Loſs of her:

"The 23d of October the Chevalier de Modene deſcried a Sail off Cape Palos, to which he gave Chace; but perceiving her to be an Enemy's Ship of ſuperior Force, he tacked, and in his Turn crouded Sail to get away: But about 5 in the Evening, the Enemy came up with him, and after a ſharp Engagement for three Hours, compelled him to ſtrike. The Oiſeau received 30 Shot between Wind and Water, had 48 Men wounded, and 13 killed, among whom were Sieurs de Gineſtous, Mauperruis, and St. Croix. The Chevalier de Modene had his Right Arm carried off by a Grape Shot; Lieutenant Salvert received a Contuſion in the Arm; and the Sieur de Chalus a ſlight Wound on the Hand. The Enemy had 20 Men killed or wounded. The Engliſh Veſſel was the Brune Frigate of 34 Guns, and 260 Men: She carried her Prize into Gibraltar, where the Chevalier de Modene, whoſe Life is not in Danger, remains."

Vienna, Dec. 6. They write from Conſtantinople, that the Truce which ſubſiſted for 25 Years, between this Court and the Porte, being expired, has been renewed for the ſame Term, and that the Ottoman Miniſtry gave our Miniſter the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of the moſt inviolable Friendſhip being preſerved between the two Courts.

Marſhal Daun arrrived here Yeſterday from Sileſia.

Ratiſbon, Dec. 6. A Party of Pruſſian Huſſars arrived the 3d Inſtant in the Night, at the Village of Winzer, which is but within Cannon Shot of this City: They ſtaid there a few Hours the next Day, and were ſuppoſed to be the Forerunners of a Detachment coming to demand Hoſtages of us; but this Party have retired, and we have ſince been informed, that during their ſhort Stay in that Village, 50 of their Comrades went to Heman, to take the Pruſſian and Heſſian Hoſtages that were removed from Nuremberg, and refuſed Admitance here by our Magiſtrates: They are now releaſed, and ſent Home.

Whilſt thoſe Huſſars thus remained in our Neighbourhood, we did not obſerve the leaſt Movement in the Bavarian Garriſon at Stadt Amhoff; which ſeems to confirm what was ſaid a few Days ago, of a Negotiation for a Neutrality being on the Carpet with the Courts of Munich and Manheim, and already very far advanced: At leaſt it is certain, that the Pruſſians paid readay Money for every Thing they took in the Bavarian Territory.

Dec. 7. The City of Kitzingengen has already paid 20,000 Florins to the Pruſſians; and the Imperial Cities of Winſheim and Rothenbourg, are each to furniſh 100,000 Crowns.

Dec. 9. The Pruſſians continue raiſing Contributions in the Counties of Wurtzbourg and Eichſtadt; and, ſince they left Nuremberg, they have extended to Dillingen and Guntzbourg in Swabia. It was ſaid Yeſterday, they were very near Ulm; and that another Detachment was marching by Oeringen towards Heilbron.

Neighbourhood of Nuremberg, Dec. 7. Nuremberg made General Kleiſt a Preſent of 1000 Ducats for the good Diſcipline he obſerved in that City. He inſiſted that for the future they ſhould be neuter. A Neutrality hath been propoſed alſo to Aſpach, Bareith, and Wurtzbourg.

Nuremberg, Dec. 7. Beſides the Contribution, Cannon, and Military Stores, which have been already mentioned, General Kleiſt was ſupplied here with 10,000 Pair of Shoes, and 6000 Pair of Boots. He carried away with him 18 Waggon Loads of Money, and Bills of Exchange to the Amount of 20,000 Crowns.

Hamburgh, Dec. 10. According to ſome Advices, the Daniſh Troops are going to be reduced.

A Regiment of Miners is raiſing in the Circle of the Mountains, in Saxony, for the Service of the King of Pruſſia.

Genoa (in Italy) Nov. 27. On the 21ſt Inſtant in the Morning, four Barks ſailed from hence with about 1300 Men for Baſtia in Corſica, in which Number are included 5 Companies, who are to ſerve only three Years.

This Republic's Troops in Corſica, have of late obtained ſome ſmall Advantages over the Malecontents, having, ſince the Surrender to them of the Poſt called, The Coſcia, taken that called St. Maria della Chiapella, which is at a ſmall Diſtance from the Coſcia; and being a Harbour for ſmall Veſſels, will be a Place of Refuge for the Genoeſe ſmall Craft, when chaſed by any of the Malecontents Privateers.

Hamburgh, Dec. 14. The King of Pruſſia arrived at Leipſic the 5th Inſtant, accompanied by General Seidlitz.

LONDON, December 23.

Some Letters from Vienna remark, that they now ſee, but too late, the Conſequences of the Armiſtice concluded for Saxony: They ſay it is favourable to none but the King of Pruſſia, who thereby found Means to execute the Project of invading Franconia, &c. which no doubt was formed before the Truce was concluded.

The Duke de Nivernois has delivered no Paſſports for Britiſh Ships ſince the Signing of the Preliminaries, and will deliver none. All theſe Paſſports have been ſent to the Earl of Egremont, and all Applications to obtain them, muſt be made at his Lordſhip's Office only. All the Paſſports given for private Perſons by the Duke of Nivernois, have, and will be, always delivered gratis.

We are informed that General Howard's, Col. Lambert's, and Col. Frederick's Regiments are to embark from Portugal to Minorca, to Garriſon that Iſland, and a Regiment, from Gibraltar is to go on the ſame Service: The French Troops are ſoon to evacuate it.

The Molly, Stephenſon, from Virginia, is arrived at Glaſgow. She came out the 10th of November, under Convoy of the Goſport Man of War, who had beſides about 70 Sail of Merchant Ships, bound to London, Briſtol, Liverpool, Scotland, &c.

There are now building at Chatham, a Firſt Rate Man of War, to carry 100 Guns, and is to be called the Victory, which is in great Forwardneſs; alſo the Ramilies of 90 Guns, that is near finiſhed, and will be launched next February; likewiſe a 60 Gun Ship.

A Letter from Lulworth, Dorſetſhire, dated Dec. 11, ſays, "Laſt Sunday Evening, at 9 o'Clock, the Horizon clear, myſelf and another Perſon being near Ludlow Caſtle, the Seat of Edward Wield, Eſq; we were ſurprized by a ſudden and radiant Light, which overſpread the Earth and Sea, equal to the Splendor of the Noon-day Summer Sun; looking directly perpendicular over us, we ſaw an Appearance refulgent as the Sun itſelf, in Form ſtraight as a Line, about eight Times the Diameter of the Full Moon in Length, in Breadth not an eighth Part of its Length; the Duration about a Minute. Afterwards it altered its Poſition, and changed into a ſerpentine Form, and ſeemed to terminate in Smoke."

A Plan is now under Conſideration, to make the Port of London the moſt beautiful and convenient of any in Europe: About 500 Merchants intend to purchaſe out the Proprietors of Lands between London-Bridge and the Tower, and to extend the preſent free Quays and Wharfs. The Lands to be purchaſed may amount to 500,000 l. but the Glory of ſuch a public Deſign is far ſuperior to the Greatneſs of the Expence. The War has given great Emoluments to the trading Part of the Nation; and the forwarding of ſuch a public Act will be juſt Acknowledgment of it.

An Order is come to continue 8 Sail of Ships with their Maſts in, viz. the Dragon, Northumberland, Superb, Eſſex, Dorſetſhire, Montague, Anſon, and Shrewſbury.

In a private Letter from Holland, by Yeſterday's Mail, is the following Paſſage: "From all the Manœuvres of the King of Pruſſia, our Politicians prognoſticate that the Theatre of War will be changed; that the War, which is juſt extinguiſhed between France and England, will embroil other Powers, and kindle another War, which may poſſibly be more general, and prove more fatal, than the preſent."

At Paris, the Mouth of every Miniſter is full of Oeconomy, the Nation being ſo much impoveriſhed by the large Sums ſent Abroad. The Parliament of Britanny hath forbid all Perſons from preſuming to interpoſe in Favour of the Jeſuits.

As French Paſſports come to 7 l. 6s. 6d, in London, People are deſirous of knowing what Price Engliſh Paſſports bear at Paris, and it is imagined the next French Mail will bring that neceſſary Information.

The Topſham, Holland, from London and New-caſtle to Boſton, is taken and carried into Ferrol.

A Number of our People who have been Priſoners of War in France, are daily expected to arrive in England, in Exchange for an equal Number of French Priſoners.

The Tin-Plate Workers, belonging to the Ordnance, are ſhortly to prepare a Model of a Building for the Exhibition of our grand Fireworks, which are to be played off at the Concluſion of the general Peace.

We hear Hans Stanley, Eſq; is going abroad to France on Affairs of Importance, and will ſet out on Chriſtmas-Day.

A very fine Poſt Chariot, of moſt exquiſite Workmanſhip, is making in Long-Acre, which is deſigned as a Preſent to the French King from a great Perſonage.

The Brig which was bound from London to the Havannah, taken by a Privateer belonging to St. Sebaſtian, and carried into that Port the 4th of December, proves to be the Hope, Elliot, loaded with Bale Goods. The Letter which brought the Account above ſays, that a Veſſel ſent Expreſs from the Havannah to England, is alſo taken by a Privateer, and carried into St. Sebaſtian.

Dec. 24. Spaniſh Paſſes are expected daily, to be iſſued in the ſame Manner as the French are.

Extract of a Letter from Vienna, Nov. 20.

"The laſt Letters from Luſatia adviſe, that the Pruſſians who lately paſſed through that Province ſpread Deſolation wherever they came. The left the Inhabitants neither Cattle nor Proviſions; in ſome Towns they did not leave them Bread for above three or four Days."

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, Dec. 17.

"The Paſſage of the Engliſh Troops is not yet agreed to or ſettled. Though General Yorke hath given Aſſurances that they ſhall pay ready Money for every Thing that is furniſhed them, ſome Provinces are not ſatisfied: They alledge, that they have not yet been paid for what was furniſhed to the Troops of England, in their Paſſage through the Republic's Territories, in the laſt War: A Reſolution hath therefore been taken, to order the Count de Welderen, the States Miniſter at London, to make Repreſentation on this Head; and we expect that the Engliſh Commiſſaries, who are employed to regulate the preſent Paſſage, will be empowered to ſettle thoſe Arrears.

"Several Advices inform us, that a large Body of Pruſſians are on their March to come and take Poſſeſſion of Weſel, Gueldres, and the County of Cleves. This Corps will be reinforced by the greateſt Part of the Britiſh Legion, and ſeveral other Bodies of Light Troops which have been diſcharged from the Allied Army, and which, it is ſaid, are gone into the Service of the King of Pruſſia. Mean while it is preſumed that the Approach of theſe Pruſſians will be looked upon with an evil Eye by this Republic, where an Uneaſineſs is already viſible: But no Body dares to open their Mouth about it. From Bruſſels we are informed, that every Meaſure is taking in that Country to oppoſe the Enterprizes of the Pruſſians, and to be beforehand with them: That in order to make Head againſt them, Orders have been received from Vienna to enliſt all the Men that are diſcharged from the Troops of France, but that they are apprehenſive that all theſe Steps will prove too late."

Letters from Vienna of the 6th Inſt. mention, that the French Ambaſſador at that Court, by expreſs Orders from his Maſter, watches all Opportunities, and takes extraordinary Pains to bring about a Peace between the Empreſs Queen, and the King of Pruſſia, to prevent the Effuſion of more blood.

Since the Return of Count Daun to Vienna, great Diſputes have ariſen as to the Object of the next Campaign, in which his Excellency is ſaid to propoſe acting only on the Defenſive, which is by no Means acceptable to the other Miniſters, who are perſuaded that offenſive Meaſures only can terminate the War to the Empreſs Queen's Satisfaction.

They write from Peterſburgh, that old Field Marſhal Munich is ſpeedily to make a Tour into Germany, in Appearance at his own Requeſt, to viſit his own Eſtates, but in Reality charged with an important Commiſſion, relative to the reſtoring of Peace by the Interpoſitions of her Imperial Majeſty's good Offices, with the Courts of Vienna, Warſaw, and Berlin.

Monſieur Bompart, with 11 Sail of the Line, 2 Frigates, and 3 Chebecks, is lately arrived in Toulon, after an idle Parade on the Coaſts of Sardinia, Tunis, and Malta, of 3 Months, without taking a ſingle Prize.

A particular State of all the Garriſons in England, and its Dependencies, is taking, together with the Number of Men at preſent retained; and we hear that they are to be raiſed to their full Complements.

A very great Alteration is ſoon expected in the Syſtem of Affairs in the Empire of Germany; all the Circles and Allies of the Houſe of Auſtria exclaim bitterly againſt the Court of Vienna, for entering into a Suſpenſion of Arms with the King of Pruſſia during the Winter, without including them, by which the Pruſſians, by their extravagant Contributions, have ruined a great Number of their Inhabitants, and may be the Means of the Seat of War being brought into their Country, on which Account they are determined to ſolicit the King of Pruſſia for a Neutrality.

They write from Saxony of the 8th Inſt. that the moſt eminent Merchants at Leipſic had been arreſted by the Pruſſians, and their Ware-houſes, Compting-houſes, &c. were ſealed up till the Contribution is paid.

Letters from Madrid of the 28th ult. aſſert, that the Spaniſh Troops returning out of Portugal, paid ready Money for every Thing they had from the Portugueſe.

It is ſaid that a Royal Country Seat will ſhortly be preſented to his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Yorke by His Majeſty.

For the Entertainment of the CURIOUS,

A COURSE of ELECTRICAL EXPERIMENTS, with explanatory LECTURES, is propoſed to be exhibited at the College, in this City, on Tueſday and Wedneſday next, provided the Air be dry enough; or, if not, on the two firſt Days after.

By EBENEZER KINNERSLEY, M. A. Profeſſor of Engliſh and Oratory in the College and Academy of Philadelphia.

This Courſe will be divided into two Lectures; in which, among many other Particulars, it will be ſhewn, that the ELECTRIC FIRE, produced by the Friction of Glaſs, or any other Electric Subſtance, is not the ſame with CULINARY FIRE, but is real LIGHTNING, the very ſame, in all Reſpects, with that which is ſeen and heard in a THUNDER-GUST; and that our Bodies, at all Times, contain enough of it to ſet a Houſe on Fire.

Above fifty curious Experiments will be made on LIGHTNING; the principal Laws by which it always acts will be exhibited and explained; and a practicable Method ſhewn, and an Inſtance given of the happy Succeſs thereof in this City, whereby Houſes, Ships, &c. may be preſerved from being damaged by LIGHTNING.

As no One need feel the Effect of any of theſe Experiments, but thoſe who chooſe it, and as the Quantity of LIGHTNING made uſe of will be but ſmall, the moſt timorous Perſon need not apprehend being either hurt or terrified. But, as the Knowledge of Nature tends to enlarge the human Mind, and give us more noble, more grand and exalted Ideas of the Author of Nature, it is preſumed that this Courſe will be, to ſome, an agreeable Entertainment.

Thoſe who deſire to have their Dwellings effectually ſecured from the deſtructive Violence of one of the moſt awful Powers of Nature, may, by theſe Lectures and Experiments, learn more of the Nature and Properties of LIGHTNING than was ever known in the World till lately; and, at the ſame time, be fully convinced, that the Method propoſed for their Security will, if put in Practice, be attended with the deſired Succeſs; and, conſequently, that Mankind, inſtead of having any juſt Objection thereto, have great Reaſon to bleſs GOD for ſo uſeful a Diſcovery. For, "A prudent Man foreſeeth the Evil, and hideth himſelf; but the Simple paſs on, and are puniſhed." Prov. xxii. 3.

The Lecture to begin, each Day, preciſely at Eleven o' Clock. Tickets to be had at the London Coffee-Houſe, or at Mr. KINNERSLEY's Houſe, in Market ſtreet; Price Half a Dollar for each Lecture.

And as the Contributors, at a General Meeting, which was held on the 31ſt of January laſt, apprehended that the preſent Method of crediting each Member's Account with a proportionable Part of the neat Intereſt ariſing on their Depoſite-money is attended with great Difficulty, and without any real Advantage to the Society, it was directed by them that the Contributors ſhould be informed, That it is to be propoſed for the Conſideration of the Society, at their annual Election;

Firſt, Whether it will not be as beneficial to the Members, that the Intereſt-money ariſing from the Stock, ſhould be carried to one common Account, and be applied as directed by the 21ſt Article of the Deed of Settlement, "in diſcharging the Expences of the Office;"----the Surplus or Remainder may be paid towards ſatisfying any Loſs that ſhall happen by Fire; as to be at the extraordinary Trouble and Expence in calculating each Contributor's Proportion of Intereſt, and crediting him therewith, and debiting his Account with his Proportion of all the Expences of ſaid Office, and his Contribution, towards every Fire?

Second, That no Part of the Depoſite-money ſhall be expended in repairing, or paying for, any Damage done by Fire, until the Ballance of the Intereſt-money, as ſhall accrue to the Time of ſuch Fire, be firſt expended. Philadelphia, March 25, 1763.

So juſtly famous for the CURE of moſt DISTEMPERS.

THIS excellent Medicine operates on the Head as a Stimulator and Purgative, on the Stomach and Lungs as an Attenuator, and on the Blood and Juices as an Alterative.

By its Operation on the Head, it cures recent Lunacies, Dimneſs, Deafneſs, inflamed Eyes, and Defect of Sight; breaks and carries off Impoſthumations, Quinſeys, and enlivens the Spirits, quickening and awaking them from indolent and lethargic Stupor, diſperſes all growing or congregated Vapours, creating intenſe Pain in any Part of the Head, Face or Gums, and the Polypus in the Noſe, it gradually eradicates.

By the like Power on the Stomach and Lungs, it diſſolves coagulated Matter, formed by bad Air, diſeaſed Fluids, or other Cauſalties; thus removing all Obſtructions, the Original of moſt Diſeaſes, it ſuddenly relieves the Aſthma, Catarrh, and Phthiſick, recovers to the Stomach and Nerves their genial Tone and Action, and utterly annihilates all hyſterical Diſorders.

By its efficacious, alterative and purifying Quality, it cleanſes the Blood and Reins from all vicious concrete Impurities, and cures the evil, ſcorbutick, leprous Humours, and peſtilential Fevers, baniſhes all Relicks of unſkilful Phyſicking, and re-eſtabliſhes the whole Animal Oeconomy in all their natural Functions.

Its ſingular Uſe and Excellence conſiſts in being pleaſant in the Taking, happy in the Operation, and morally certain in the Cure; hinders no Buſineſs, Eating, or Drinking; not cauſing, but preventing and curing Colds.

The Manner of its Operation is various, as the Habit of the Body inclines, but moſt generally by the Channel of the Noſe, or Urine, the moſt ready or leaſt diſagreeable Way of carrying off all Obſtructions.

It is excellent in all nervous Diſorders, by the Aſſiſtance of a Pill, called the Nervous Pill, which operates as a gentle Opener and Purifyer. Likewiſe a Preparative, called Tinctura Amara Indiana, that comforts and ſtrengthens the Stomach, aſſiſts Digeſtion, and gives Vigour to the Appetite.

An Ointment to be uſed outwardly in leprous, evil and groſs Habits, removing the external Scurf, in Proportion as the Snuff eradicates all internal Obſtructions, gives the Blood, and Juices that feed it, a free Circulation, and purifies the whole Maſs.

Theſe are all ſo ſafe in their Operations, that People of any Kind of Occupations may not be obſtructed at the Time of taking them, they chiefly acting as Alteratives.
